SYLLABUS STATEMENT

Individual preparation of a self-directed portfolio as an expression of the student's own understanding of generalist social work practice in relation to the local context. The student's prior learning experiences will be incorporated in the development of the project.

Course Hours: 3 units; H(1S-2T)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Generalist practice "in context" is the core of the learning in the social work 300 theme course. The social work 301 integrated study is designed to encourage the contextualizing of social work practice. It hinges upon the idea that everything social workers do in relationship is dependent upon the contextual practice in which the relationship unfolds. There are multiple ways of knowing and coming to know, Eurocentric ways of knowing being only one of these. This portfolio is premised on the importance of exploring context and expanding perspective to recognize and include the uniqueness of different contexts.

As Marie Battiste, in Reclaiming Indigenous Voice and Vision (2000) states: "the more people become aware of the conditionality of a context, the more likely they are to be able to effect meaningful change to that context". A contextual practice model affirms the need for social workers to expand their vision of both what can be done and how it is to be done. The themes in this course provide students with the opportunity to articulate a contextualized practice model, recognizing interconnection and interdependence between different ways of knowing and honouring of different cultural, geographical, and ethical contexts.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate self-reflection as it relates to engaging in professional practice through a comprehensive understanding and consciousness of the complex nature of a student's own identities
2. Articulate professional identities as practitioners whose professional goal is to facilitate collective welfare and well-being
3. Demonstrate critical awareness of how geographical, cultural and linguistic contexts influence professional social work identity
4. Integrate professional use of self in generalist social work practice
5. Demonstrate knowledge of legislation governing social work practice in Alberta, including the Health Professions Act, Code of Ethics, and Standards of Practice in various professional roles, activities and institutional contexts, with a particular emphasis on professional responsibilities towards vulnerable or disadvantaged groups

6. Apply skills to monitor and evaluate their own behaviors in relation to the relevant Codes of Ethics and Standards of Practice
7. Expand and further elaborate on their own contextualized model of generalist practice

ASSESSMENT COMPONENTS

Assignments	Weight
1. Reflective learning notes and learning artifacts	40%
2. Course Participation	25%
3. Learning portfolio	35%

All the assignments that you will submit for SOWK 301 are individual assignments. However, some of the learning activities during Zoom sessions will require students to work together and discuss course topics. Your participation in group discussions and Zoom session activities will be considered in your participation grade.

Assignment 1: Reflective learning notes and learning artifacts

Aligned Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) 1-7

Weight: 40% (10% per module: 8% for reflective note and 2% for learning artifacts)

Due: Last day of each module

Description:

At the end of each of the four SOWK 301 modules, you will post in the designated D2L discussion board:

- a) A reflective note: A description of a learning moment (e.g. a moment of realization, clarity, inspiration, recognition, insight, and/or understanding) from SOWK 300 or SOWK 301 module readings, learning activities or Zoom Session discussions or activities and how it specifically influences/shapes your evolving social work identity, your engagement in an inclusive learning community, and your approach to social work practice. Reflective notes should be approximately 2 pages (400-500 words) in length.

- b) 1-2 artifacts that helped to facilitate your learning moment: An artifact could be, for example: an article (or section of an article) or other reading, a class lecture (or an aspect of it), a quote or phrase said in class, a photo, a video, and/or a group activity/discussion. APA format for citing and referencing of resources and materials used is required.

A grading rubric will be provided on D2L. Your instructor will use the rubric to provide brief, formative feedback on your reflective notes and artifacts for each module.

Required learning artifacts:

1. Self-care plan (Module 1)

You will create and maintain an individualized self-care plan, choosing from the templates and options provided in D2L.

Post in D2L by September 21st at 11:59 pm in the designated Module 1 discussion board.

2. Digital Collage (Module 2)

You will use imagery (e.g.: photographs, logos, drawings, symbols, shapes, colors, diagrams) to create a digital display, collage or creative journal page of your contextual reality in relationship to personal and professional self and self-care practices that support your health, well-being and learning. Your digital collage may represent personal and professional contexts, social location/identities, your social work story, your emerging professional identity, professional use of self and/or approaches to self-care. Using images expands understanding of “how” learning occurs and allows you to creatively explore ways to express meaning. Use only imagery on a single PPT slide (no narrative or words). Share your digital collage on the discussion forum and include a brief introduction or description in the discussion thread (100-150 words).

Note: You may choose to write a more detailed commentary on your digital collage for your Module 2 reflective note.

Assignment will be due on October 9th at 11:59 pm on D2L Module 2 discussion board.
