SYLLABUS STATEMENT

This course provides an overview of the profession of social work and the social policy context within which it is practiced.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course explores social welfare in modern society and introduces learners to the social work profession. Through inquiry-based learning, readings, learning from guest speakers and discussions, learners will examine the history, philosophical foundation, codes of ethics, practice standards, theoretical perspectives and diverse fields of practice related to social work.

This course has no pre-requisites or co-requisites.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of this course, learners will be able to:

1. Examine well-being and justice experienced by diverse community members in their interactions with peoples, social structures, social policies and legislation;
2. Identify social work theories, practice frameworks and practice methods;
3. Describe attributes and perspectives that are integral to being professional social workers;

4. Demonstrate an ability to reflect on their own identities and social locations, and consider their implications for human interactions and professional social work practice;
5. Demonstrate social work knowledge and skills and describe their application in working with individuals, families, groups and communities of diverse backgrounds in the various fields of practice;
6. Describe issues facing Indigenous peoples and communities, the role of social work in perpetuating colonialism, and contemporary efforts to decolonize social work practice and to honor Indigenous ways of knowing and being; and
7. Identify, analyze and apply social work values, ethics and responsibilities across various professional roles, activities and institutional contexts.

LEARNING TECHNOLOGIES AND REQUIREMENTS

This course is entirely web-based, delivered through the Desire2Learn (D2L) Brightspace learning platform and the Zoom synchronous program. A laptop, desktop, or mobile device with internet access, webcam, microphone, and speaker is required for D2L and Zoom access. D2L is available at <http://D2L.ucalgary.ca>.

If you are having trouble with your technology, please call the IT Support Centre Toll free: 1.888.342.3802, or local direct: (403) 210.9300, or email it@ucalgary.ca. For additional information, please visit <https://ucalgary.service-now.com/it>. A Faculty of Social Work Learning Technologies Coach will also be available to you for assistance with Zoom and D2L.

RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER COURSES

SOWK 201 is both a service course and a BSW required course that offers introductory knowledge of social welfare, social policy, social programs, and the social work profession. For learners considering application for admission to the Faculty of Social Work, the course provides an overview of ideology and professional practice that may help them make their decision; for those already accepted into the Faculty of Social Work, this course offers a broad general framework for the specific social work courses that follow.

ADDITIONAL CLASSROOM CONDUCT AND RELATED INFORMATION

EQUITY, DIVERSITY, INCLUSION AND RECONCILIATION

The Faculty of Social Work (FSW) is committed to promoting and actualizing equity, diversity, inclusion and reconciliation. We affirm that diversity and differences are enriching and valuable, and that they can strengthen our teaching, learning, research, and community connections. We aim to foster an inclusive, thriving environment for our students, staff, postdoctoral fellows, and community members. We acknowledge systemic inequities and compounded disadvantages due to intersectionality of social locations particularly for those who are members of the racialized, Indigenous peoples, disability and 2SLGBTQ+ communities, as well as those who have experienced socioeconomic, caregiving, religious, cultural barriers to their education. We recognize, honour and integrate into our work diverse perspectives, experiences, and strengths. <https://socialwork.ucalgary.ca/about/about-faculty/equity-diversity-and-inclusion>

GUIDELINES FOR ZOOM SESSIONS IN ONLINE CLASSES

Students are expected to participate actively in all Zoom sessions. If you are unable to attend a Zoom session, please contact your instructor to arrange an alternative activity for the missed session (e.g., to review a recorded session) for your best learning experiences. Please be prepared, as best as you are able, to join class in a quiet space that will allow you to be fully present and engaged in Zoom sessions. Students will be advised by their instructor when they are expected, if they are able, to turn on their webcam (for group work, presentations, etc.). All students are expected to behave in a professional manner during the session.

MEDIA RECORDING FOR ASSESSMENT OF STUDENT LEARNING

The instructor may use media recordings as part of the assessment of students. This may include but is not limited to classroom discussions, presentations, clinical practice, or skills testing that occur during the course. These recordings will be used for student assessment purposes only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose.

ZOOM RECORDINGS OF ONLINE CLASSES

The instructor may record online Zoom class sessions for the purposes of supporting student learning in this class – such as making the recording available for review of the session or for students who miss a session. Students will be advised before the instructor initiates a recording of a Zoom session. These recordings will be used to support student learning only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose.

ASSESSMENT COMPONENTS

Assignment 1: Integrated Posts

Due Dates: September 24, October 8, October 29, and November 26 by 11:59PM (MT)

Weight: 60% (Four posts, 15% each post)

Aligned Course Learning Outcomes: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7

Assessment Description and Criteria: This assignment is designed to support learners to demonstrate their understanding and application of course materials. Learners will review the specific case studies and provide answers to the guiding questions that help them integrate and apply their knowledge. They will create four main posts that address the areas of focus in the four modules (up to 500 words for each main post). They will also review and respond to their colleagues' posts (up to 200 words each reply). Further instruction is provided on D2L.

Grading Criteria: The following criteria will be used to assess each main post: demonstrated integration of course materials (6%), critical thinking (6%), and clarity in writing (3%).

Assignment 2: An Exploration of Your Social Worker Profile

Due Date: Ongoing development of profiles; Final profiles due November 22 by 11:59PM (MT)

Group sharing on December 6, 6:00PM – 9:00PM, MT

Weight: 40% (Profile - 30% and Group sharing - 10%)

Aligned Course Learning Outcome: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7

Assessment Description and Criteria: This assignment is designed to support learners to explore their personal profiles as social workers. As learners embark on their learning journeys, they will continually reflect on the relevance of the course materials and learning activities to their personal and professional experiences, values, qualities, skills and approaches. They will use the various methods of their choices

(i.e. reflective journaling, voice memos or podcasts, artistic expressions, artifacts, story boards, use of multimedia, etc.) to express their emerging social worker profiles. More instruction is provided on D2L.

Grading Criteria: This assignment consists of two components, namely personal expressions of social worker profiles (30%) and group sharing of social worker profiles (10%). The following criteria will be used to assess expressions of social worker profiles: demonstrated integration of course materials and personal and professional development (10%), critical insights (10%), and creativity and innovation (10%). The following criteria will be used to assess group sharing of social work profiles: articulation of personal social worker profile (5%) and effective presentation (5%).

ADDITIONAL ASSESSMENT AND EVALUATION INFORMATION

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION EXPECTATIONS

Learners are asked to log in regularly to keep up to date with discussions. Discussion postings remain on the site for the duration of the course; however, learners are expected to contribute to the discussion in a timely manner. Discussion posts should validate and extend our learning. All postings and responses are expected to ensure respect, dignity, and confidentiality for all participants.

INSTRUCTOR'S OFFICE HOURS VIA ZOOM MEETINGS – OPTIONAL

Office Hours with your instructor are optional – only if you require speaking with the instructor along with others. If you have questions that require privacy, please email jafields@ucalgary.ca. Instructor office hours will be conducted via Zoom sessions and dates are posted on D2L. Please review the current course materials before participating in an office hour session. You will need a webcam and a microphone to participate. You are expected to arrive at the start time of session. If 10 minutes have elapsed without anyone joining the online room, the Instructor will close the session

LATE ASSIGNMENTS

Any assignment that is submitted after the due date without an explanation will receive a grade of zero. Whenever possible, you must give advanced notice of late submissions to the instructor. Note: It is at the Instructor's discretion to grade a late assignment based on the student's pattern of engagement with, and participation in, the course.

EXPECTATIONS FOR WRITING

All assignments will be assessed partly on writing skills. Writing skills include not only surface correctness (grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, etc.) but also general clarity and organization. Sources used in research papers must be properly documented and referenced in APA 7th edition format. If you need writing support, please connect with the Student Success Centre, at: <https://www.ucalgary.ca/student-services/student-success/writing-support>

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

It is expected that all work submitted in assignments is the learners' own work, written expressly by the learner for this particular course. Learners are reminded that academic misconduct, including plagiarism, has serious consequences, as set out in the University Calendar: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>

GRADING

A student's final grade for the course is the sum of the separate assignments. It is not necessary to pass each assignment separately in order to pass the course.

The University of Calgary Undergraduate Grading System and Faculty of Social Work Percentage Conversion will be used.

Grade	Grade Point	Description	Percentage Range
A+	4.0	Outstanding	95 - 100
A	4.0	Excellent – superior performance, showing comprehensive understanding of subject matter	95 – 100
A-	3.7		90 – 94
B+	3.3		85 – 89
B	3.0	Good – clearly above average performance with knowledge of subject matter generally complete	80 – 84
B-	2.7		75 – 79
C+	2.3		70 – 74
C	2.0	Satisfactory – basic understanding of subject matter	65 – 69
C-	1.7		60 – 64
D+	1.3		55 – 59
D	1.0	Minimal Pass – marginal performance	50 – 54
F	0.0	Fail – unsatisfactory performance or failure to meet course requirements	Below 50

COURSE EVALUATION

Student feedback will be sought at the end of the course through the standard University and Faculty of Social Work course evaluation forms. Students are welcome to discuss the process and content of the course at any time with the instructor.

ADDITIONAL SUGGESTED READINGS

This course serves as a general introduction to social welfare, social work, and social services. Therefore, learners are encouraged to locate additional readings on relevant topics. An additional suggested reading list for the course is provided in the D2L course and most works listed are available online through the University of Calgary library at www.library.ucalgary.ca

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY POLICIES AND SUPPORTS

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

As members of the University community, students and staff are expected to demonstrate conduct that is consistent with the University of Calgary Calendar
<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>

Students and staff are also expected to demonstrate professional behaviour in class that promotes and maintains a positive and productive learning environment. Consistent with the aims of the Social Work Program and the University of Calgary, all students and staff are expected to respect, appreciate, and encourage expression of diverse world views and perspectives; to offer their fellow community members unconditional respect and constructive feedback; and to contribute to building learning communities that promote individual and collective professional and personal growth. While critical thought and debate is valued in response to concepts and opinions shared in class, feedback must always be focused on the ideas or opinions shared and not on the person who has stated them.

Students and staff are expected to model behaviour in class that is consistent with our professional values and ethics, as outlined in the Canadian Association for Social Workers, Code of Ethics (2005) and the Alberta College of Social Work Standards of Practice (2019). Both can be found online at:
<https://acsw.ab.ca/site/practice-resources?nav=sidebar>

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures. Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS). SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available <https://ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Student-Accommodation-Policy.pdf>

RESEARCH ETHICS

"If a student is interested in undertaking an assignment that will involve collecting information from members of the public, they should speak with the course instructor and consult the CFREB Ethics Website (<http://www.ucalgary.ca/research/researchers/ethics-compliance/cfreb>) before beginning the assignment.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

For information on academic misconduct and its consequences, please see the University of Calgary Calendar at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>

INSTRUCTOR INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Course materials created by professor(s) (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the professor(s). These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the professor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.

COPYRIGHT LEGISLATION

All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (<https://ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Acceptable-Use-of-Material-Protected-by-Copyright-Policy.pdf>) and requirements of the copyright act (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html>) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PROTECTION OF PRIVACY

Student information will be collected in accordance with typical (or usual) classroom practice. Students' assignments will be accessible only by the authorized course faculty. Private information related to the individual student is treated with the utmost regard by the faculty at the University of Calgary.

SEXUAL AND GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE POLICY

The University recognizes that all members of the University Community should be able to learn, work, teach and live in an environment where they are free from harassment, discrimination, and violence. The University of Calgary's sexual violence policy guides us in how we respond to incidents of sexual violence, including supports available to those who have experienced or witnessed sexual violence, or those who are alleged to have committed sexual violence. It provides clear response procedures and timelines, defines complex concepts, and addresses incidents that occur off-campus in certain circumstances. Please see the policy available at <https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/university-policies-procedures/sexual-and-gender-based-violence-policy>
