SYLLABUS STATEMENT

Examines contexts, theories, practice models and skill development in specialized fields of practice.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course combines live, online, sessions with asynchronous online work, on six days, over a six-week time period. The course provides a framework for trauma-informed social work practice with individuals who have experienced various forms of trauma and mental health issues. Various assessments, diagnostic tools and theoretical constructs are reviewed for trauma and mental health.

Participants will also be introduced to the concepts of compassion fatigue, vicarious trauma, secondary traumatic stress and strategies to mitigate the impact of providing compassionate care for marginalized and vulnerable populations.

This course utilizes multiple methods of instruction. The course content will be delivered via traditional lectures, group discussions, professional presentations, various technologies, experiential learning and in-depth discussions of practical applications.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of this course, you will be able to:

1. To identify the different classes of mental health disorders
2. To explain the connection between trauma and mental health disorders
3. To learn and apply the principles of trauma-informed care in social work practice
4. To utilize relevant screening tools for trauma and mental health
5. To apply basic theoretical constructs that can be used to treat trauma and mental health
6. To review the impact of trauma work on social workers

ADDITIONAL CLASSROOM CONDUCT AND RELATED INFORMATION

EQUITY, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

The Faculty of Social Work acknowledges the inequities experienced by racialized people, Indigenous people, and other marginalized populations. We aim to foster an environment that recognizes and celebrates diverse perspectives. Therefore, we are committed to eradicating all forms of injustices based on race, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, age, socio-economic status, religion, and disability.

GUIDELINES FOR ZOOM SESSIONS IN ONLINE CLASSES

Students are expected to participate actively in all Zoom sessions. If you are unable to attend a Zoom session, please contact your instructor to arrange an alternative activity for the missed session (e.g., to review a recorded session). Please be prepared, as best as you are able, to join class in a quiet space that will allow you to be fully present and engaged in Zoom sessions. Students will be advised by their instructor when they are expected, if they are able, to turn on their webcam (for group work, presentations, etc.). All students are expected to behave in a professional manner during the session.

MEDIA RECORDING FOR ASSESSMENT OF STUDENT LEARNING

The instructor may use media recordings as part of the assessment of students. This may include but is not limited to classroom discussions, presentations, clinical practice, or skills testing that occur during the course. These recordings will be used for student assessment purposes only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose.

ZOOM RECORDINGS OF ONLINE CLASSES

The instructor may record online Zoom class sessions for the purposes of supporting student learning in this class – such as making the recording available for review of the session or for students who miss a session. Students will be advised before the instructor initiates a recording of a Zoom session. These recordings will be used to support student learning only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose.

ASSESSMENT COMPONENTS

Assignment 1: Case Study: Applying A Trauma-Informed Framework

Value: 25% of Final Mark

Due Date: June 1, 2021 at 5pm

Aligned Course Learning Outcome: 2, 3, 4

Background Information: You know what Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) are and the impact they can have on adults physically, mentally, emotionally and behaviourally. A trauma-informed practice means that you assume it's possible that the person you are working with has experienced ACEs or trauma in adulthood. It's important that when you are learning about a client that you always listen for possible ACEs/trauma and that you understand the link between trauma and current experiences or behaviours.

Directions: Applying a trauma-informed perspective, review the case study provided and report the following information:

1. What are 10 Adverse Childhood Experiences?
2. What are three adverse childhood experiences Chantelle had growing up?
3. What are four adult physical/mental health conditions that someone is more likely to develop when they have four or more adverse experiences?
4. What is one mental health condition that Chantelle has that people who have experienced for or more ACEs has a higher chance of developing?
5. What are four adult behaviours that people who have experienced four or more ACEs has a higher chance of developing?
6. What are two behaviours Chantelle has that people who have experienced for or more ACEs has a higher chance of developing?
7. Identify three sources of support for Chantelle?
8. What are three strengths that Chantelle has?

Format: To be completed in D2L.

Grading: This assignment will be graded according to criteria outlined in the grading rubric corresponding to this assignment, which is posted in D2L.

Assignment 2: Literature Review and Critique Presentation

Length: 8-10 Minutes. Maximum 25 slides.

Format: APA formatted Power Point presentation

Value: 45% of total grade

Due Date: June 15, 2021

Aligned Course Learning Outcome: 1,2,3,4,5

Choose one mental health issue to focus your literature review and critique on. Review and critique five research articles or book chapters on the application of a theory or intervention with your chosen mental health issue. Develop a power point presentation including the below criteria.

Summary (10%):

Summarize the main points and thesis of the article/chapters.

Critique of Article (35%):

Critique the ideas presented in article; the strong and weak points. Consider social work values and anti-oppressive practice in your critique.

Application to Practice (35%):

How useful would the ideas presented in the article be for social work practice, consider who may or may not benefit from the ideas presented.

Organization and Format of Presentation (10%):

In this assignment you will use Microsoft PowerPoint to create an effective presentation. Adhere to APA 7th ed. Guidelines for citation (including images) and referencing. Organization of ideas. Adherence to slide and time guidelines.

Peer Feedback (10%):

Four to five of your peers will view your video presentation and provide feedback.

Submissions: Upload power point into D2L Dropbox. Upload link to video presentation in D2L.

Grading: Participation will be graded according to criteria outlined in the grading rubric corresponding to this assignment, which is posted in D2L.

Assignment 3: Participation Activities and Reflections

Value: 30% of total grade

Due Date: June 16, 2021

Aligned Course Learning Outcome: 1,2,3,4,5,6

Format: Participation will be graded based on contributions to class discussions and online activities.

ADDITIONAL ASSESSMENT AND EVALUATION INFORMATION

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION EXPECTATIONS

Students are expected to attend class regularly and to be fully present and engaged in class activities and discussions. These are part of the participation grade, as outlined in the assessment components section above.

If you miss a class or a participation component you will be expected to review the recording of the class and complete the participation activities.

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMITTING ASSIGNMENTS

Please submit all assignments electronically through their respective dropbox in D2L. Assignments may be submitted in Word format. Assignments should have a file name as follows: "Full name and assignment number" (e.g., Jane Smith Assignment 2). Assignments are due by 5:00 p.m. on their due date. Please note that it is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of each submitted assignment and to ensure that the proper version is submitted.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS

The total possible grade of an assignment will be reduced by 10% for each day/partial day (including weekend days) the assignment is handed in beyond the due time or beyond a negotiated extension date. Assignments may NOT be rewritten for a higher grade.

EXPECTATIONS FOR WRITING

All assignments will be assessed partly on writing skills. Writing skills include not only surface correctness (grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, etc.) but also general clarity and organization. Sources used in research papers must be properly documented and referenced in APA 7th edition format. If you need writing support, please connect with the Student Success Centre, at: <https://www.ucalgary.ca/student-services/student-success/writing-support>

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

It is expected that all work submitted in assignments is the student's own work, written expressly by the student for this particular course. Students are reminded that academic misconduct, including plagiarism, has serious consequences, as set out in the University Calendar: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>

GRADING

A student's final grade for the course is the sum of the separate assignments. It is not necessary to pass each assignment separately in order to pass the course. The University of Calgary Undergraduate Grading System and Faculty of Social Work Percentage Conversion will be used.

Grade	Grade Point	Description	Percentage Range
A+	4.0	Outstanding	95 - 100
A	4.0	Excellent – superior performance, showing comprehensive understanding of subject matter	95 – 100
A-	3.7		90 – 94
B+	3.3		85 – 89
B	3.0	Good – clearly above average performance with knowledge of subject matter generally complete	80 – 84
B-	2.7		75 – 79
C+	2.3		70 – 74
C	2.0	Satisfactory – basic understanding of subject matter	65 – 69
C-	1.7		60 – 64
D+	1.3		55 – 59
D	1.0	Minimal Pass – marginal performance	50 – 54
F	0.0	Fail – unsatisfactory performance or failure to meet course requirements	Below 50

COURSE EVALUATION

Student feedback will be sought at the end of the course through the standard University and Faculty of Social Work course evaluation forms. Students are welcome to discuss the process and content of the course at any time with the instructor.

ADDITIONAL SUGGESTED READINGS

Additional suggested readings will be listed in D2L

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY POLICIES AND SUPPORTS

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

As members of the University community, students and staff are expected to demonstrate conduct that is consistent with the University of Calgary Calendar

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>

Students and staff are also expected to demonstrate professional behaviour in class that promotes and maintains a positive and productive learning environment. Consistent with the aims of the Social Work Program and the University of Calgary, all students and staff are expected to respect, appreciate, and encourage expression of diverse world views and perspectives; to offer their fellow community members unconditional respect and constructive feedback; and to contribute to building learning communities that promote individual and collective professional and personal growth. While critical thought and debate is valued in response to concepts and opinions shared in class, feedback must always be focused on the ideas or opinions shared and not on the person who has stated them.

Students and staff are expected to model behaviour in class that is consistent with our professional values and ethics, as outlined in the Canadian Association for Social Workers, Code of Ethics (2005) and the Alberta College of Social Work Standards of Practice (2019). Both can be found online at:

<https://acsw.ab.ca/site/practice-resources?nav=sidebar>

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures. Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS). SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available <https://ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Student-Accommodation-Policy.pdf>

RESEARCH ETHICS

"If a student is interested in undertaking an assignment that will involve collecting information from members of the public, they should speak with the course instructor and consult the CFREB Ethics Website (<http://www.ucalgary.ca/research/researchers/ethics-compliance/cfreb>) before beginning the assignment.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

For information on academic misconduct and its consequences, please see the University of Calgary Calendar at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>

INSTRUCTOR INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Course materials created by professor(s) (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the professor(s). These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the professor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.

COPYRIGHT LEGISLATION

All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (<https://ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Acceptable-Use-of-Material-Protected-by-Copyright-Policy.pdf>) and requirements of the copyright act (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html>) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PROTECTION OF PRIVACY

Student information will be collected in accordance with typical (or usual) classroom practice. Students' assignments will be accessible only by the authorized course faculty. Private information related to the individual student is treated with the utmost regard by the faculty at the University of Calgary.

SEXUAL VIOLENCE POLICY

The University recognizes that all members of the University Community should be able to learn, work, teach and live in an environment where they are free from harassment, discrimination, and violence. The University of Calgary's sexual violence policy guides us in how we respond to incidents of sexual violence, including supports available to those who have experienced or witnessed sexual violence, or those who are alleged to have committed sexual violence. It provides clear response procedures and timelines, defines complex concepts, and addresses incidents that occur off-campus in certain circumstances. Please see the policy available at <https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Sexual-Violence-Policy.pdf>
