OUR COMMITMENT TO EQUITY, RACIAL JUSTICE, DIVERSITY, INCLUSION AND DECOLONIZATION

The Faculty of Social Work (FSW), University of Calgary (UCalgary), is committed to promoting and actualizing equity, racial justice, diversity, inclusion and decolonization. We affirm that diversity and uniqueness are enriching and valuable, and that they can strengthen our teaching, learning, research, scholarship, and community connections. We aim to foster an inclusive, thriving and equitable environment for our students, non-academic and academic staff, and community members. We take the stand that equity does not mean sameness in treatment of people, but rather requires measures and accommodations for diverse life experiences and circumstances to ensure that no one of a particular social group is disadvantaged, underrepresented or overlooked in all aspects of our work. We intend to address systemic inequities and compounded disadvantages due to intersectionality of social locations, particularly for those who are members of racialized communities, Indigenous peoples, Black peoples, persons with disabilities, migrant groups (including refugees and immigrants), 2SLGBTQ+ communities, linguistic minorities as well as those who have experienced socioeconomic, caregiving, religious, political, and/or cultural barriers to their education and employment. We also recognize, honour, and integrate into our work diverse perspectives, ways of knowing and doing, experiences, and strengths. An anti-oppressive lens, particularly intersectional, anti-colonial, anti-racist and decolonizing frameworks, will inform our work.

Please refer to our full statement of Our Commitment to Equity, Racial Justice, Diversity, Inclusion and Decolonization, the work of the faculty's Anti-Black Racism Task Force, and the university's Indigenous Strategy.

SYLLABUS STATEMENT

Focuses on interviewing and counselling skills from a generalist social work perspective. Emphasis will be given to skill development, critical reflection, practice evaluation, and practical application within rural, remote and Indigenous contexts.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Through lectures, assigned readings, structured exercises, video resources, group discussion, role-playing, and practice interviews, students will be introduced to core elements of communication theory and generalist model for social work practice. These concepts serve as the theoretical foundational for the course and specific communication skills will be identified, modeled and practiced within the context of the classroom, primarily by student themselves. Using multimedia (including Zoom), role-play and various feedback mechanisms, students will explore and critique their individual strengths and weaknesses in interview situations for populations within their current or potential practice environments.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Critically understand the “self” in the development of a professional helping relationship.
2. Identify attitudes, behaviors, values, ethics and cultural differences that may facilitate or interfere with developing a healthy professional relationship.
3. Acquire and demonstrate adequate skills to conduct a beginning interview with a social work client.
4. Demonstrate an understanding of the stages, phases and objectives of the interview process.
5. Demonstrate appropriate attending, listening skills, empathy, inquiry, immediacy, and confrontational skills.
6. Acquire an awareness of the theoretical, ethical, and practical issues involved in effective interviewing.
7. Demonstrate self-awareness and self-analysis by constructively critiquing, addressing, and improving upon student’s own interview skills.

ADDITIONAL CLASSROOM CONDUCT AND RELATED INFORMATION

GUIDELINES FOR ZOOM SESSIONS IN ONLINE CLASSES

Students are expected to participate actively in all Zoom sessions. If you are unable to attend a Zoom session, please contact your instructor to arrange an alternative activity for the missed session (e.g., to review a recorded session) for your best learning experiences. Please be prepared, as best as you are able, to join class in a quiet space that will allow you to be fully present and engaged in Zoom sessions. Unless advised (or agreed) otherwise by their instructors, video cameras should be turned on during class and students are expected to manage their microphones as required. All students are expected to behave in a professional manner during all Zoom sessions.

MEDIA RECORDING FOR ASSESSMENT OF STUDENT LEARNING

The instructor may use Zoom media recordings as part of the assessment of students. This may include but is not limited to classroom discussions, presentations, clinical practice, or skills testing that occur during the course. These recordings will be used for student assessment purposes only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose.

ZOOM RECORDINGS OF ONLINE CLASSES

The instructor may record online Zoom class sessions for the purposes of supporting student learning in this class – such as making the recording available for review of the session or for students who miss a session. Students will be advised before the instructor initiates a recording of a Zoom session. These recordings will be used to support student learning only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose.

ASSESSMENT COMPONENTS

Assignment 1: Critical Reflection of Recorded Conversation Paper #1 (worth 20%) –
Due: January 15th by 11:59 MST

Aligned Course Learning Outcomes: 1, 2, 3, 7

Assessment Criteria: An assessment rubric will be available on D2L.

Assignment Description:

Students will audio record, a conversation in which the student was a direct participant (with the consent of the other party/parties). The specific conversation selected is entirely up to the student.

Students should refrain from engaging in a discussion pertaining to a sensitive topic, or a discussion that includes sensitive information/materials, however, the conversation should also be meaningful in nature (i.e., as opposed to 'small talk'), which will provide sufficient materials. It may be helpful for the purposes of this assignment to select a conversation focus/topic that is meaningful to the student and of a substantive nature to allow the student sufficient material to reflect upon.

It is recommended that you engage in this conversation, with a classmate, friend, family, member, or partner, and they have agreed to this process in advance of the recording. Please note, that you will inform this person of the purpose of this recording (i.e., for a class assignment for SOWK 303), and that recorded materials will be transcribed and any/all identify information will be removed, prior to their submission for the review by the SOWK 303 course instructor. It is NOT permissible to use a client, or a person/party with whom you are in a position of authority/power. It is recommended that you engage in this conversation, with a friend, family, member, or partner, and they have agreed to this process in advance of the recording. Please note, that you will inform this person of the purpose of this recording (i.e., for a class assignment for SOWK 303), and that recorded materials will be transcribed and any/all identify information will be removed, prior to their submission for the review by the SOWK 303 course instructor.

The purpose of this assignment is for students to begin to develop critical reflective skills specifically in relation to their communication style, there is no expectation for the students to reference materials beyond those, which have been assigned up until the due date of the assignment (i.e., Shebib, 2020, Chapters, 1, 2, 10). The transcript from this recorded audio session, will be included within a 'process recording' format (i.e., a template will be provided within the course via D2L). In the adjacent column, and in direct relation to the conversation transcript materials, students will provide their reflection on, but not limited to the following areas:

- The student may reflect on factors pertinent to the course, including their awareness of specific communication styles or patterns, the nature and/or origin of this style or communication pattern(s). For example, do these patterns reflect family or cultural factors, or are they related to lived experience, such as prior or current employment/volunteer experiences?
- The student may reflect on how their communication style could be of benefit to future social work practice and/or create tension points/challenges for practice, in relation to ethics, values and/or professional identity.
- The student may reflect on specific communication skills present during the conversation. Student may wish to provide some context and/or direct reference to the specifics of what was said, how it was said, by whom it was said etc., in order to allow for thorough reflection on the nature of their conversational style.
- Reflect upon and then describe any new awareness about the nature of their conversation style and/or who they are as a communicator.
- The student may also reflect on what aspects/areas of their communication they would like to enhance/develop within and beyond the current course. For example, in what ways would the student wish to alter their communication style, who they may become as a communicator into the future and/or how these changes may be realized.

This assignment will be completed via a template using 11-point Calibri font. Assignments will only be accepted via D2L Dropbox.

Detailed instructions, assignment template, and assignment grading criteria provided on D2L.

Assignment 2: Participation-Weekly Self-Assessment (worth 15%). Due daily, with final deadline for all participation evaluations by January 7th by 11:59 pm MST

Aligned Course Learning Outcomes: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6

Assessment Criteria: An assessment rubric will be available on D2L.

Assignment Description:

This is an experiential class that requires critical reflexivity and regular interactions with other students through role plays, small group discussions, and dialogue. Students are expected to demonstrate evidence of being engaged with the readings, a willingness to risk sharing reflections and challenging one's own behavior, and a willingness to support others in the learning process. A group is impacted when a member is absent from it or uninvolved in the activities/process. Students will complete a self-evaluation form returned in class at the end of each class, or alternately uploaded to D2L prior to the beginning of the next class. As students have a range of learning styles participation can be diverse in nature. Therefore, participation marks will consider involvement in the course (attending Zoom sessions, attending group practice sessions) and engaging thoughtfully in weekly discussion postings (1 posting and 1 response to a peer). It is the student's responsibility to submit completed participation forms after each class. These self-evaluations will help inform the final participation mark assigned by the course instructor.

Assignment 3: Video Demonstration (worth 35%) & Critical Reflection (worth 30%) (Worth a total of 65% of the course grade)

Due: January 31st by 11:59 pm MST

Aligned Course Learning Outcomes: 1, 2, 3, 5

Assessment Criteria: An assessment rubric will be available on D2L.

Assignment Description:

The purpose of this assignment is for students to have the opportunity to demonstrate the knowledge of, and skills related to social work interviewing/counselling skills that are the focus of the coursework completed to date (i.e., up until the time of this assignment submission deadline) including materials covered during class, as well as in the readings. Student are required to complete Part A and Part B of this assignment.

Part A: Video Demonstration (worth 35%): Due: January 31st by 11:59 pm MST

Video Recording: Students will complete a 15-minute video with a partner, in which the student, as interviewer, will demonstrate knowledge and a range of social work interview/counselling skills covered to-date in the course. Students are encouraged to complete this assignment with a partner from class (i.e., who plays the role of the interviewee). However, this is not a strict requirement, only a suggestion, as this allows students to gain the valuable experience of being an interviewer as well as being interviewed. Regardless, this interview skill demonstration must be completed with another person, who is able to participate fully in such an activity. It is preferred that videos be completed with the interviewer and interviewee in the same room (i.e., the in-person simulated interview is video recorded), as this will provide additional materials for the student to reflect upon in a later part of the assignment (i.e., non-verbals/paraverbal communications). However, if this is not possible students are able to conduct the interview via Zoom, with the caveat that cameras of both participants must be turned on and both the interviewer and interviewee must be visible throughout the interview. Regardless, of the medium selected (i.e., in-person or Zoom) it is the student's responsibility to ensure that video and sound quality are adequate. The content/focus of the interview will be in relation to a simulated case-scenario(s) provided in class. The interviewee will use this material to provide information related to the nature of the issue that has brought them into contact with the social worker. It is important that students review the knowledge-based materials from the course, as well as practice their interview skills prior to this recording (i.e., as opposed to ad-libbing without prior preparation). However, the intention of this assignment is not to record a scripted interview where the interviewer and interviewee have specifically rehearsed/planned what each party will say or do throughout the 15-minute interaction. Furthermore, due to the truncated nature of this assignment (i.e., social work interviews rarely begin and end within 15-min), it is at the student's discretion as to which point their interview will cover. For example, students can elect to begin their simulated interview from the beginning of an interview, or pick-up at an agreed upon starting point with the interviewee (i.e., mid-point, or towards the end of the interview) relative to what the student wishes to practice. Assignments will only be accepted via D2L Dropbox.

Detailed instructions, assignment template, and assignment grading criteria provided on D2L.

Part B: Critical Reflection of Video Demonstration (30%) Due: January 31st by 11:59 pm MST

Assignment Description:

Step 1) Transcript and Identification of skills - In relation to the video recorded for Assignment 2, and with the aid of a process recording template provided in the course (i.e., via D2L), students will create a verbatim transcript of the interview (i.e., column A of the template) and in column B of the template identify specific interview skills demonstrated in relation to the specific facets of the interview detailed in column A. For example, students will stipulate in column B the various skills (i.e., active listening, purposeful silence, accurate empathy, positive regard, congruence, type of questioning employed, paraphrasing, summarizing, avoiding problem solving, advice giving etc.). The materials completed in column B, will be generated from the student's thoughtful, and critically reflective review of their video and should be specific and concise, using appropriate terminology and concepts from the course. These reflections offered in column B are NOT general statements. Rather, each reflection is specifically aligned to and pertains directly to a specific segment of corresponding content transcribed in the adjacent section of column A (i.e., comments in column B are specifically linked to segments of the transcript in column A).

Step 2) The Critique- Continuing to use the provided process recording template from Part I of this assignment, students will offer a critique of the skill demonstrated in column B, relative to the transcript item in column A. Specifically, students are invited to highlight if they were pleased with this skill, whether this demonstrated skill aligned with their actual intentions, how this skill may relate to the interviewee's situation/circumstances/needs (per the case-vignette). If the student was displeased by this specific skill they may reflect upon this in column C by indicating what specifically they did not like about this specific skill application, as well as identify preferred alternatives (i.e., what they could have done differently as opposed to what they demonstrated in the video, as outlined in column A, and identified in column B). Where appropriate students should make explicit links to materials from the course in column C, including reference to in-class materials and/or readings. Assignments will only be accepted via D2L Dropbox. Referenced materials should be done so following the appropriate in-text and reference page formatting consistent with APA 7th Edition guidelines.

ADDITIONAL ASSESSMENT AND EVALUATION INFORMATION

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION EXPECTATIONS

Students are expected to be fully present and engaged in each class activities and discussions. If a student must miss a class, it is the student's responsibility to catch up on discussions, notes and other information through other classmates and/or D2L. All class PowerPoints, videos, reading and other material will be posted on D2L. If classes are conducted virtually, Zoom sessions will be recorded when appropriate for lecture material but some class discussion may not be recorded due to confidentiality concerns of other students.

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMITTING ASSIGNMENTS

Please submit all assignments electronically through their respective Dropbox in D2L. Assignments may be submitted in Word or PDF format. Assignments should have a file name as follows: "Full name and assignment number" (e.g., Jane Smith Assignment 2). Assignments are due by 11:59pm on their due date. Please note that it is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of each submitted assignment and to ensure that the proper version is submitted.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS

Assignments submitted after the deadline may be penalized with a grade reduction.

EXPECTATIONS FOR WRITING

All assignments will be assessed partly on writing skills. Writing skills include not only surface correctness (grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, etc.) but also general clarity and organization. Sources used in research papers must be properly documented and referenced in APA 7th edition format. If you need writing support, please connect with the Student Success Centre, at: <https://www.ucalgary.ca/student-services/student-success/writing-support>

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

It is expected that all work submitted in assignments is the student's own work, written expressly by the student for this particular course. Students are reminded that academic misconduct, including plagiarism, has serious consequences, as set out in the University Calendar:

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>

GRADING

A student's final grade for the course is the sum of the separate assignments. It is not necessary to pass each assignment separately in order to pass the course. The University of Calgary Undergraduate Grading System and Faculty of Social Work Percentage Conversion will be used. This grading system overrides the grading system in D2L. The rounding up of grades will occur when the earned grade is calculated to be greater than, or equal to a .5, in situations where this will result in an elevation of the submitted Letter Grade (i.e., 84.5 will be rounded up to 85; 89.5 will be rounded up to 90; 94.5 will be rounded up to 95 etc.). The rounding of grades only occurs in relation to the calculation of the final course grade (i.e., overall course grade for both modules) and not to individual assignments.

Grade	Grade Point	Description	Percentage Range
