

Faculty of Social Work – Term Certain Sessional Instructors

The Faculty of Social Work invites applications for term certain Sessional Instructors in our Calgary, Central and Northern Alberta Region, and Southern Alberta Region during the Winter, Spring, Summer, and Fall academic terms.

The faculty offers face-to-face, blended and online classes to students in our BSW and MSW programs. Our areas of study include, but are not limited to: field education (including field supervision); child welfare; international and community development; leadership; clinical practice (e.g., trauma, addictions, mental health, gerontology), practice with individuals, families and groups; practice with communities and organizations; research and social policy; social justice; social work with Indigenous peoples; and social work with racialized people and marginalized populations

Position Requirements:

- A completed MSW with a minimum of 2 years of post MSW social work experience
- Current registration in good standing with the Alberta College of Social Workers, or equivalent regulatory body
- Expertise in the area of study
- Demonstrated history of ongoing professional development in the area of study
- Evidence of excellence in teaching at a post-secondary level
- Comfortable to be teaching through an online delivery mode
- Incorporate Equity, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) in the course content and teaching
- Incorporate Indigenous perspectives in the subject matter related to the theme of each course

Interested applicants should electronically submit a cover letter expressing their interest referencing their area of expertise, a current CV and three letters of reference that refer to knowledge of area of study and teaching effectiveness. The posting will remain open to accept applications.

Send electronic applications to:

Dr. Jennifer Hewson
Associate Dean, Teaching and Learning
jahewson@ucalgary.ca

The University of Calgary believes that a respectful workplace, equal opportunity and building a diverse workforce contribute to the richness of the environment for teaching, learning and research, and provide faculty, staff, students and the public with a university that reflects the society it serves. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. In this connection, at the time of your application, please answer the following question within your cover letter: Are you a Canadian citizen or permanent resident of Canada? (Yes/No)