

Group Facilitators Needed

We are hiring two facilitators to co-lead affinity groups in the Department of Psychology in the Winter 2023 semester

What are affinity groups?

Affinity groups are spaces for members of equity- and sovereignty-deserving groups to gather, share experiences, build community, and identify common issues and solutions.

SKILLS NEEDED

- Strong facilitation skills with groups
- Commitment to inclusion, equity, & justice
- Ability to facilitate a 90-minute weekly group session throughout the Winter 2023 semester
- Lived experience within an equity- or sovereignty-deserving group, including (but not limited to) women, Indigenous peoples, racialized folks, persons with disabilities, 2SLGBTQIA+ folks, and their intersections

BENEFITS

- Paid position
- Opportunity to practice and strengthen group facilitation skills
- Training in facilitation for equity
- Contribute to building a new curriculum with potential for widespread use

Please email edi.psychology@ucalgary.ca with a resume and a statement of interest describing how your experience meets the required skills by November 15, 2022.

Only successful candidates will be contacted for an interview.
