OUR COMMITMENT TO EQUITY, RACIAL JUSTICE, DIVERSITY, INCLUSION AND DECOLONIZATION

The Faculty of Social Work (FSW), University of Calgary (UCalgary), is committed to promoting and actualizing equity, racial justice, diversity, inclusion, and decolonization. We affirm that diversity and uniqueness are enriching and valuable and can strengthen our teaching, learning, research, scholarship, and community connections. We aim to foster an inclusive, thriving, and equitable environment for our students, non-academic and academic staff, and community members. We take the stand that equity does not mean sameness in the treatment of people but instead requires measures and accommodations for diverse life experiences and circumstances to ensure that no one of a particular social group is disadvantaged, underrepresented, or overlooked in all aspects of our work. We intend to address systemic inequities and compounded disadvantages due to the intersectionality of social locations, particularly for those who are members of racialized communities, Indigenous peoples, Black peoples, persons with disabilities, migrant groups (including refugees and immigrants), 2SLGBTQ+ communities, linguistic minorities as well as those who have experienced socioeconomic, caregiving, religious, political, and cultural barriers to their education and employment. We also recognize, honor, and integrate diverse perspectives, ways of knowing and doing into our work, experiences, and strengths. Our work will be informed by an antioppressive lens, particularly intersectional, anti-colonial, anti-racist, and decolonizing frameworks.

SYLLABUS STATEMENT

Integration of theory and practice within the context of the field practicum.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course allows students to integrate theory and practice, linking academic knowledge, skills, and values derived from BSW social work courses and past experiences with ongoing practice experiences in the field placement setting. It also provides students opportunities to foster professional development and make connections between thinking, feeling, and doing about being a social worker.

Students will be expected to:

- 1. present and discuss practice experiences from their field placement settings using knowledge about various aspects of social work theory and practice.
- 2. critically reflect upon their own and others' practice experience.
- 3. engage in a collaborative learning process; and
- 4. demonstrate competence in identifying, applying, critiquing, and evaluating theories and conceptual frameworks in their practice setting.

Students participate in collaborative discussions regarding professional issues, practice situations, and ethical dilemmas. While critically reflecting on practicum experiences, students are encouraged to integrate knowledge and skills from the generalist practice framework into their own developing practice framework.

This course will take place online via Desire2Learn (D2L) and Zoom. To best succeed in the course, students are encouraged to participate in asynchronous learning tasks using the D2L learning environment and synchronous Zoom sessions. When unable to participate, inform the instructor and propose and implement an alternative participation activity (e.g., consult with a peer regarding the missed class material, submit a brief reflection, and actively contribute to the follow-up online discussion, etc.).

Prerequisite(s): Completion of all required 300 level Social Work courses.

Corequisite(s): Social Work 410.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

LEARNING TECHNOLOGIES AND REQUIREMENTS

Web Delivery

This course is entirely web-based and delivered through Desire2Learn (D2L) and Zoom Meeting platforms. A D2L site is set up for this course, which contains required readings and other relevant class resources and materials. A laptop, desktop, or mobile device with Internet access, microphone, and speaker is needed for D2L and Zoom access.

Desire2Learn

D2L is a course management system that allows us to share resources, complete related learning activities, and connect via the discussion board and Zoom.

Zoom Sessions

Zoom meeting is an audiovisual, web-based program that allows us to meet at a specific time for a "live" web conference to see and talk to each other virtually and discuss relevant issues. In the Zoom sessions, students can expect to share ideas, give feedback, and raise issues related to their practicum experience and that of their peers. They can process experiences from the field in a safe and instructional environment.

Confidentiality in Class and Course Assignments

As professionals, students and the instructor will respect the confidentiality guidelines outlined in the CASW Code of Ethics (2005). We will ensure that no information identifying a client of any service system is used in class meetings or assignments. We will adhere to the policy that issues introduced in the seminar will be discussed only in general and not in particular ways outside the classroom.

RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER COURSES

SOWK 411 emphasizes practice, that is, social work in action. Because students are expected to apply knowledge, skills, and values to specific situations, this course can be related to all other BSW courses. The seminar is taken concurrently and directly linked to Practicum I (SOWK 410).

ASSESSMENT COMPONENTS

Assignment 1: Integrating Theory and Practice (ITP Loop) – 40% of total course grade

Presentations are due in class on October 21, 2024.
Written submission due in drop box by 11:59 pm, November 1, 2024

Aligned Course Learning Outcomes: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7

This assignment intends to engage in reflective, collaborative social work practice using a combination of the ITP Loop and Peer Consultation. The ITP Loop model allows social workers to deconstruct their practice and break it down into its parts. At first glance, our practice appears holistic and intuitive, but it can be unravelled and articulated with much greater detail. Practice is a combination of listening, feeling, thinking, and acting in which all these processes co-occur. The ITP loop allows us to take a closer look at these processes with the goal of integrating social work theory and the field education experience. The ITP Loop consists of the following phases: retrieval (remembering a practicum situation), reflection, linkage, and professional response. Each student will complete the ITP Loop process twice.

Step 1: ITP Loop Process: Students will apply the ITP loop (see steps below) to a practicum experience. The submission should be made up of the following sections (a total of 3-4 pages, double-spaced):

- 1. Retrieval Recall salient facts of a recent practice experience. In a paragraph or two, briefly describe a significant experience that has taken place in your practicum setting. In telling the story, position yourself as the author using the first person. Things to share may include interactions with significant others, links between present and past experiences, feelings, ideas, or meaning-making that occurred. As relevant, include the intellectual, spiritual, social, physical, and aesthetic dimensions in telling the story. (6 marks)
- 2. Reflections Recall your thoughts and feelings about the situation. Focus on the subjective beliefs and attitudes, personal experiences, and cultural worldviews relevant to the problem. Identify how these factors influenced your interaction. (6 marks)
- 3. Linkage Identify the key actions you took and explain how you chose those actions. Which practice models, practice wisdom, learned techniques or skills did you consider/use? (6 marks)
- 4. Professional Response consider whether your response was selected through deliberate or intuitive reflection and linkage. Do you feel that your response was adequate, appropriate, or

- sufficient? What could you have done differently? How may that have impacted your work? What did you learn about social work practice? (6 marks)
- 5. Questions to Peers What (2-4) questions do you have for your peers about this practice experience? (6 marks)

Step 2: Providing Feedback to Others: On October 21, students will be asked to share their ITP loops in small groups during class. Students are expected to offer helpful, supportive, and resourceful consultation and feedback to their peers. Each student will prepare a summary of their peer feedback (max 1 page double-spaced; 5 marks) and a reflective response to peer feedback (max one page double-spaced; 5 marks).

Assignment Submission (due November 1, by 11:59 pm):

Submit the following components of the assignment as one document via Dropbox:

- -ITP Loop write-up (Step 1, 30 marks)
- -Summary of peer feedback from Step 2 (max 1 page double spaced; 5 marks)
- -Reflective response to peer feedback (max 1 page double spaced; 5 marks)

Assignment 2: Being Engaged - Participation and feedback 15% -

Self-evaluation of participation (5 marks) is due December 9, 2024); Feedback to group presentations (5 marks- on the day following the group presentation)
Aligned Course Learning Outcomes 1-7

The participation grade awards you mark for your dedication to being an active learner in the different components of the course. The seminar is highly experiential, and student participation is essential to individual and class learning. You are expected to attend all workshops and to be involved in class discussions by sharing experiences and ideas from the field. You are also likely to support the learning of your peers by encouraging their participation, hearing their perspectives, and sharing constructive feedback.

Criteria for class participation include punctuality, professional presentation, level of sharing of experiences, introducing new ideas and learning new information, engaging in class discussions, providing feedback on group presentations, openness to the ideas of others, ability to pose questions, and adherence to collective understandings established by the class. You will have the opportunity to give input to your grade.

Assignment 3: Becoming the Leader – Group Class Facilitation (20%) – Dates will be selected in Zoom Session #1

Aligned Course Level Outcomes: 1, 3, 4, 5, 7

In small groups, students will lead the class in a short activity or discussion on a topic of their choice. Topics might include a specific theory, a specific social work issue of interest, a self-care activity, a reflective practice exercise or tool, a particular practice skill, or others (confirm with the instructor before proceeding with the work).

Members of another group will review each group presentation and ask the presenters questions. Each peer reviewer will provide 250-word (maximum) written feedback, which will be posted to Dropbox on the day following the presentation (reviewers who do not post their feedback will lose five participation marks).

A rubric for peer review will be available on D2L.

Assignment 4: Celebrating the Journey – Final Reflection (25%) – December 6, 2024

Aligned Course Level Outcomes: 1, 3, 4, 5, 6.

In this reflective and summative assignment, students will use a format of their choosing (written paper, recorded PowerPoint, video recording, etc.) to reflect on and respond to the following question: How did the classroom and practice learning from your BSW program influence the emerging social worker you are now? Students will locate themselves in their emerging social work practice using a chosen format. Assignments will highlight contributions to their professional identity up to this point and identify directions for future growth and learning, considering what this means for the next practicum experience.

It is important to remember that a social work practice framework is unique because it includes a micro-level systems analysis, attention to the dynamic and changing social environment, and consideration of how you influence your practice with your context and application of experience and values.

Students will include:

- Social location, positionality, and identity in practice.
- Sources informing practice (theories, frameworks, approaches, literature, experience).
- Emerging practice strengths (Identify what you believe are some of your emerging strengths and justify your assessment with examples from the practicum)
- Directions for future learning or practice (e.g., skills, topics, approaches, opportunities, further education, or professional training)
- Specific strategies for continually improving and reflecting on your practice

APA 7 format and referencing are expected regardless of the format chosen. More information will be provided.

A rubric will be available on D2L.
