

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Our students, faculty and staff are located across Indigenous lands. On our Calgary campus, we acknowledge and pay tribute to the traditional territories of the peoples who made Treaty 7, which include the Blackfoot Confederacy (comprised of the Siksika, the Piikani and the Kainai First Nations), the Tsuut'ina First Nation and the Stoney Nakoda (including Chiniki, Bearspaw and Goodstoney First Nations). The city of Calgary is also home to the Métis Nation of Alberta (Districts 5 and 6). Our Calgary campus is situated on land northwest of where the Bow River meets the Elbow River, a site known as Moh'kins'tsis to the Blackfoot, Wîchîspa Oyade to the Îyâxe Nakoda (Stoney Nakoda), and Guts'ists'i to the Tsuut'ina and Otos-kwunee to the Metis.

At our Edmonton campus, we acknowledge the Treaty 6 region, the traditional homelands of Cree, Blackfoot, Nakota Sioux, Iroquois, Dene, Ojibway/ Saulteaux/ Anishinaabe, Inuit and Métis people (Districts 9 and 10). We recognize the rich cultural history of the place, now called the City of Edmonton, which has, for centuries, been a traditional gathering place of Indigenous peoples from across Alberta, BC, and Saskatchewan.

At our Lethbridge campus, we acknowledge the traditional territories of the Blackfoot people of the Canadian Plains and pay respect to the Blackfoot people past, present and future while recognizing and respecting their cultural heritage, beliefs and relationship to the land. We offer respect to the Metis and all who have lived on this land and made Lethbridge their home.

OUR COMMITMENT TO EQUITY, RACIAL JUSTICE, DIVERSITY, INCLUSION AND DECOLONIZATION

The Faculty of Social Work (FSW), University of Calgary (UCalgary), is committed to promoting and actualizing equity, racial justice, diversity, inclusion and decolonization. We affirm that diversity and uniqueness are enriching and valuable, and that they can strengthen our teaching, learning, research, scholarship, and community connections. We aim to foster an inclusive, thriving and equitable environment for our students, non-academic and academic staff, and community members. We take the stand that equity does not mean sameness in treatment of people, but rather requires measures and accommodations for diverse life experiences and circumstances to ensure that no one of a particular social group is disadvantaged, underrepresented or overlooked in all aspects of our work. We intend to address systemic inequities and compounded disadvantages due to intersectionality of social locations, particularly for those who are members of racialized communities, Indigenous peoples, Black peoples, persons with disabilities, migrant groups (including refugees and immigrants), 2SLGBTQ+ communities, linguistic minorities as well as those who have experienced socioeconomic, caregiving, religious, political, and/or cultural barriers to their education and employment. We also recognize, honour, and integrate into our work diverse perspectives, ways of knowing and doing, experiences, and strengths. An anti-oppressive lens, particularly intersectional, anti-colonial, anti-racist and decolonizing frameworks, will inform our work.

This course will take place online via Zoom and Desire2Learn (D2L). To best succeed in the course, students are expected to participate in the asynchronous learning tasks using the D2L learning environment and synchronous Zoom sessions. When unable to participate live due to the time difference or unforeseen circumstances, inform the instructor in advance and propose and implement. ASSESSMENT COMPONENTS

Assignment 1: Facilitative Discussion (30%) – Due according to Class Schedule

Aligned Course Learning Outcomes: 2, 3, 4.

Assignment Description:

This is a facilitated discussion, not a presentation. This assignment is designed to actively engage your classmates in a discussion about the key themes in the chapter assigned to the group and in the learning process.

Students will be assigned to groups by the instructor at the start of the class. Student groups will be assigned a chapter of the course text to use in their discussion. Students are expected to identify 3 or 4 key themes that are focused on in the assigned chapter. The group will lead a class discussion about the themes highlighted as the focus of the chapter. Students should address the implications for social work practice and ways in which the identified themes address influences including power, oppression, social justice, social change and community within the context of such factors as class, race, gender, sexual orientation, age, and ability.

Assessment Criteria:

Length: Maximum 45-minute class discussion.

Grading criteria for class facilitations:

- A focus on the key themes
- Summarizing the most significant concepts
- Connection to clinical practice
- Engaging the class in meaningful discussion.

A group grade will be assigned after completion of the facilitative discussion. The same grade will be assigned to each individual in the group; however, if you have not contributed to the group to the same extent as the other group members - a demonstration of professionalism and fair practice is required on your part. The instructor expects you, as an individual, to professionally state to the instructor the reasons for your reduced participation and then recommend to the instructor a lower grade for yourself individually than for your group peers.

Assignment 2: Policy Analysis – Policy Infographic (50%) – Due by November 20, 2025.

Aligned Course Learning Outcomes: 2, 4, 5

Assignment Description:

This assignment is designed to simulate the preparation for policy case presentation to a policy analyst in Government in support of policy change. Through this assignment you will identify, collect, and assemble materials that are relevant and important to understanding a policy change initiative that will be the focus of your memo to cabinet. The instructor has arranged for guest speakers in class to policy work that is current and in process in the community.

The class will be divided into groups of four or five students. The groups will select policy issues that align to one of the clinically and practice relevant policy-change related topics for the course that will be used as the focal point of the presentation. These include: 1) mental health & addictions; 2) human services: a) child welfare, b) family violence, 3) poverty including employment, social security, living wage, guaranteed annual income; 4) homelessness; 5) families and children; 6) aging; 7) immigration.

Each group will select a policy area for this assignment. Information in support of the policy issue can be gathered from multiple sources including government websites, policy documents, journal papers, and books. This assignment aims to strengthen the students' understanding of the issues and concepts related to advocacy in a policy area.

Assessment Criteria:

Students are expected to find evidence from the research or policy documents to support their policy case. The case will require a 1) an area for policy change, 2) a rationale for required changes, 3) the identification of the important conceptual and/or theoretical basis for the changes proposed, 4) strategies and approaches to for the creation of the planned change, and 5) implications for social work practice. Student groups will present their work to date to the class on November 20, November 27, & December 2 and December 4th to simulate a policy consultation.

The final policy submission will be developed as an infographic in support of the policy request. The infographic will have a maximum length of 2-3 pages. Students can use any free software such as Piktochart or Canva.

Assignment 3: Reflection Paper (20%) – Due October 30, 2025 by 11:59pm

Aligned Course Learning Outcomes: 1, 3, 4

Assignment Description:

You are asked to write a 1000-word (4 page) paper to share your reflection and viewpoints toward any one of the presentations by the guest speakers or one of the webinars provided in the course outline.

Assignment Criteria: Although you are encouraged to be reflective in writing the paper, the following format for the paper is required to be used: 1) introduction, 2) key messages of guest speakers/webinars and/or knowledge content area covered in this class and other classes in the clinical specialization, 3) your perspectives and viewpoints (supported by rationales and reasons), and 4) learning emerged.
