OUR COMMITMENT TO EQUITY, RACIAL JUSTICE, DIVERSITY, INCLUSION AND DECOLONIZATION

The Faculty of Social Work (FSW), University of Calgary (UCalgary), is committed to promoting and actualizing equity, racial justice, diversity, inclusion and decolonization. We affirm that diversity and uniqueness are enriching and valuable, and that they can strengthen our teaching, learning, research, scholarship, and community connections. We aim to foster an inclusive, thriving and equitable environment for our students, non-academic and academic staff, and community members. We take the stand that equity does not mean sameness in treatment of people, but rather requires measures and accommodations for diverse life experiences and circumstances to ensure that no one of a particular social group is disadvantaged, underrepresented or overlooked in all aspects of our work. We intend to address systemic inequities and compounded disadvantages due to intersectionality of social locations, particularly for those who are members of racialized communities, Indigenous peoples, Black peoples, persons with disabilities, migrant groups (including refugees and immigrants), 2SLGBTQ+ communities, linguistic minorities as well as those who have experienced socioeconomic, caregiving, religious, political, and/or cultural barriers to their education and employment. We also recognize, honour, and integrate into our work diverse perspectives, ways of knowing and doing, experiences, and strengths. An anti-oppressive lens, particularly intersectional, anti-colonial, anti-racist and decolonizing frameworks, will inform our work.

Please refer to our full statement of our Commitment to Equity, Racial Justice, Diversity, Inclusion and Decolonization, our Statement on Anti-Black Racism and the work of the faculty's Anti-Black Racism Task Force, our Statement on Anti-Asian Racism, and the university's Indigenous Strategy.

SYLLABUS STATEMENT

Focuses on theory and practice related to social work interventions.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will provide an overview of child welfare as a field of social work practice. The course will examine legislation, policy, and practice and how perspectives have shifted over time, introducing emerging theories and approaches to working with children, youth, and families. The impact on the child of various forms of maltreatment, and possible resulting trauma; the involvement of government and community agency workers; as well as how legislation, policy, the court system, law enforcement, and other government ministries all influence how decisions are made in the child welfare system, will be explored. This course will examine the historical and current legislation, policy and practices that have contributed to the over-representation of Indigenous children in child welfare (colonization, residential schools, the 60's scoop) as well as the ways in which different communities are differentially impacted by child welfare intervention. An ecological and anti-oppressive perspective will also be presented, as well as current and non-traditional interventions with voluntary and non-voluntary families.

This course will be taught online via D2L and zoom in both synchronous (i.e., real time/Zoom) and asynchronous (i.e., students review materials on their own time) contexts. To best succeed in the course, students are expected to participate in both the asynchronous learning tasks using the D2L learning environment and synchronous Zoom sessions. A variety of instructional activities will be used, including lectures, reviewing materials from current media, videos, class discussions, online discussions, case studies, and research. As participation in the class discussion is expected, students will be required to attend scheduled synchronous online classes with functional internet access, computer, camera and microphone to enhance participation. Students will be encouraged to think critically about child welfare and how it relates to their ethics and values as a social worker. Please see Class Schedule on pg. 5 for a list of required scheduled Zoom sessions. There are no prerequisites identified for this course.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of this course, you will be able to:

1. Understand the historical context of child welfare and interventions that continue to impact child welfare services in Canada, including the impact of colonization on Indigenous peoples.
2. Demonstrate an understanding of the Indigenous perspective of the child welfare system in relation to colonialism, residential schools, and the Sixties Scoop.
3. Apply an ecological or multi-systems perspective in understanding the balance between child

- safety, child wellbeing and the preservation of the family within child welfare practice.
4. Critically evaluate the major issues in child welfare and their implications for family practice and understand the ways that child welfare practice and policy may be evaluated.
 5. Examine and analyze services to diverse and special child and family populations with respect to knowledge of developmental needs, and sensitivity in work with people from diverse ethnic, religious, and Indigenous populations.
 6. Explore emerging practices and trends in child welfare and how these fit with social work perspectives and values.
 7. Examine factors related to the social work practitioner working within the structural tensions of the child welfare system.
 8. Develop an awareness of the organization and delivery of child welfare services, including primary programs, service variations, roles, and responsibilities of child welfare workers.

LEARNING TECHNOLOGIES AND REQUIREMENTS

A D2L site is set up for this course, which contains required readings and other relevant class resources and materials. A laptop, desktop or mobile device with Internet access, camera, microphone and speaker is required for D2L and Zoom access.

RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER COURSES

This course is a senior level elective, designed to align with other social work courses in the areas of policy, practice, and research. The course provides an opportunity to analyze and integrate knowledge from other courses in the social work program through application of principles as they relate to child welfare social work practice.

ADDITIONAL CLASSROOM CONDUCT AND RELATED INFORMATION

GUIDELINES FOR ZOOM SESSIONS IN ONLINE CLASSES

Students are expected to participate actively in all Zoom sessions. Please be prepared, as best as you are able, to join class in a quiet space that allows you to be fully present and engaged in Zoom sessions.

Unless advised (or agreed) otherwise by your instructor, your video camera should be turned on during class and you are expected to manage your microphone as required. Please reach out to your instructor if you experience challenges that prevent you from having your camera turned on. You are expected to behave in a professional manner during all Zoom sessions. Please do not share the Zoom links with anyone who is not registered in this course.

RECORDINGS OF ONLINE CLASSES (By Students)

Recording of lectures is generally not permitted. You must seek authorization from your instructor to record any lecture. Any student with a disability who is registered with Student Accessibility Services (SAS), and who requires an accommodation to make audio recordings of course material shall be provided with such an accommodation if determined necessary by an Access Advisor in SAS. Please refer to the Recording of Lectures Policy and Student Non-Academic Misconduct Policy for the additional information.

ASSESSMENT COMPONENTS

1. Major Paper

Due: August 15th 2024 – submitted via dropbox to Instructor by 11:59pm. Late papers will not be accepted beyond Aug 19/24.

Value: 40%

Aligned Course Learning Objectives: Meets CLO 1-8

Assignment Description: This major paper will provide an opportunity for students to do independent research on a child welfare topic related to the course objectives. It will cover issues related to practice, policy or research related to services approaches or child maltreatment. The paper is a minimum of 15 pages and a maximum of 20 pages in length, typewritten, double-spaced, not including references or coversheet. Referencing should follow the American Psychological Association (APA) format 7th Edition with title page and referencing. An abstract is not needed. Begin to identify your topics early in the semester and email topic choice and area of focus to instructor in advance for feedback. Assignments that are handed in after August 15/24 will be considered late. Further details regarding this assignment will be discussed in class.

Assessment Criteria: A marking outline will be distributed and discussed in class. Criteria for the marking outline will include: Content – 40%, Synthesis, Integration & Analysis – 40%, and Technical/Structural – 20%. The outline will provide examples of each of these categories for your review.

2. D2L Discussion Boards

Due: Discussion board 1: July 10 – closes July 17 at 11:59pm

Discussion board 2: July 24 – July 31 at 11:59pm

Value: 20% each x 2 = 40%

Aligned Course Learning Objectives: Meets CLO 1-8

Assignment Description: On-line D2L discussions are designed to generate an iterative and in-depth discussion between the class participants on critical topics related to child welfare. This assignment will offer an opportunity to provide a follow-up to discussions that have begun in class, material shared in asynchronous lessons as well as reading assignments which have informed the cumulative learning that has occurred over the term to date. Discussions will occur two times over the course. Each D2L discussion will be graded at 20% for a total of 40% for the assignment. This will be an interactive process that will include original postings as well as comments and feedback with fellow students. Students are encouraged to post early upon the discussion board opening and respond often throughout the week for full marks. Please note: As this assignment is meant to be an iterative discussion between students during the posting window, late submissions beyond the due date for each discussion board will not be accepted.

Assessment Criteria: A marking rubric will be provided in class and on D2L. Criteria and weighting for D2L discussions include: Ideas including application of the content and materials (reading, asynchronous lessons) from the course: 40%, Critical Thinking: 30%, Participation: 20%, & Etiquette: 10%.

3. Contributions to, and participation in class

Due: July 31, 2024

Value: 20%

- Self and Instructor assessments will be used to determine the student's grade.
- This written self-assessment will be completed using criteria provided in class and will be completed during class time July 31, 2024.

Aligned Course Learning Objectives: Meets CLO 1-8

Assessment Description: Students are expected to attend each class, with cameras on, having read the required readings in advance of class, complete asynchronous lessons, and participate fully in discussions using chat or commenting, as well as small group/class discussions. Students are encouraged to formulate questions about the material, respond to others' questions, and share their thoughts, challenges, and experiences in the field and how future practice will be affected by what is learned throughout the course.

Assessment Criteria: A marking rubric will be provided to the students in class and will be posted on D2L. Students will be asked to provide examples of how they have participated and contributed to the quality of the class, outline how many classes they have participated in at the mid-point and the final session, provide an overview of other considerations that had an impact on their self-grade, and a score based out of 10. The instructor will review the grades and the examples provided by students and provide a final score that accounts for 20% of the final grade and takes into account both the student and instructors assessment of participation.

ADDITIONAL ASSESSMENT AND EVALUATION INFORMATION

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION EXPECTATIONS

- Students are expected to be fully present and engaged in each class activities and discussions. These are part of the participation grade, as outlined in the assessment components section above.
- If missing classes, check the Course Content tab on D2L for material covered, and if wanting to learn more about the class, if students are not able to get information from student colleagues, email instructor at coral.wigand@ucalgary.ca

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMITTING ASSIGNMENTS

Please submit assignments electronically through their respective D2L Dropbox or discussion board. Assignment should be submitted in Word format not PDF. Assignments should have a file name as follows: "Full name and assignment number" (e.g., Jane Smith – Assignment 1). Assignments are due by 11:59 p.m. on their due date. Please note that it is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of each submitted assignment and to ensure that the proper version is submitted.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS

- Assignments submitted after the posted deadline will be penalized with a grade reduction of 1 mark from the grade assigned for each day the assignment is late. For example, if a student receives 35/40 on the major paper, one point will be deducted from the student's grade for each day the paper is late; 3 days late would mean the student's final grade is reduced to 32/40. Please note that MAJOR PAPERS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED BEYOND AUGUST 19th 2023 due to grade submission deadline for the summer term.
- Please note D2L discussion board assignments are meant to be an iterative discussion between students during the posting window; as such late submissions beyond the due date for each discussion board will not be accepted.

EXPECTATIONS FOR WRITING

Students are expected to format the learning applications and final paper using APA 7th edition formatting for referencing, unless otherwise noted. All assignments will be assessed partly on writing skills which include surface correctness (grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, etc.) as well as general clarity and organization. Sources used in research papers must be properly documented and referenced in APA 7th edition format. If you need writing support, please connect with the Student Success Centre, at: <https://www.ucalgary.ca/student-services/student-success/writing-support>

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

It is expected that all work submitted in assignments is the student's own work, written expressly by the student for this particular course. Students are reminded that academic misconduct, including plagiarism, has serious consequences, as set out in the University Calendar: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>

GRADING

A student's final grade for the course is the sum of the separate assignments. It is not necessary to pass each assignment separately in order to pass the course. The University of Calgary Undergraduate Grading System and Faculty of Social Work Percentage Conversion will be used. This grading system overrides the grading system in D2L.

Grades for separate assignments will not be rounded up. All grades will be added at the end of term and rounded as per specified rounding conventions to determine the final percentage grade for the course. Final marks with decimal points equal to or greater than .5 will be rounded upwards. For example, 89.5 (but not 89.4 or less) would be rounded up to 90. Students must meet or exceed the lower threshold of the percentage range as indicated below to achieve the corresponding letter grade for the course.

Grade	Grade Point	Description	Percentage Range
A+	4.0	Outstanding performance	95-100
A	4.0	Excellent performance	85-94
A-	3.7	Approaching excellent performance	80-84
B+	3.3	Exceeding good performance	77-79
B	3.0	Good performance	73-76
B-	2.7	Approaching good performance	70-72
C+	2.3	Exceeding satisfactory performance	67-69
C	2.00	Satisfactory performance	63-66
C-	1.70	Approaching satisfactory performance	60-62
D+	1.30	Marginal pass. Insufficient preparation for subsequent courses in the same subject	57-59
D	1.00	Minimal pass. Insufficient preparation for subsequent courses in the same subject.	50-56
F	0.00	Failure. Did not meet course requirements.	Below 50
CG		Credit Granted. Not included in the GPA calculation. See section F.1.3 for additional detail.
CR		Completed Requirements. Carries no weight in calculating the grade point average. This will be noted in the calendar description as "Not Included in GPA" where applicable.

COURSE EVALUATION

At the close of each term, students can provide feedback on their academic learning experience in their courses, including their instructors, through university-wide online surveys. Student feedback contributes to ensuring academic excellence in the university's curriculum by bringing direct feedback to instructors.

Students will receive an email from UCalgary Course Experience Surveys with direct links to their current course surveys, or they can access within the D2L course shell. For more information, visit: <https://www.ucalgary.ca/provost/teaching-learning/student-surveys/usri>

Students are welcome to discuss the process and content of the course at any time with the instructor.

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY POLICIES AND SUPPORTS

Professional Conduct

As members of the University community, students and staff are expected to demonstrate conduct that is consistent with the University of Calgary's Code of Conduct.

Students and staff are also expected to demonstrate professional behaviour in class that promotes and maintains a positive and productive learning environment. Consistent with the aims of the Social Work Program and the University of Calgary, all students and staff are expected to respect, appreciate, and encourage expression of diverse world views and perspectives; to offer their fellow community members unconditional respect and constructive feedback; and to contribute to building learning communities that promote individual and collective professional and personal growth. While critical thought and debate is valued in response to concepts and opinions shared in class, feedback must always be focused on the ideas or opinions shared and not on the person who has stated them.

Students and staff are expected to model behaviour in class that is consistent with our professional values and ethics, as outlined in the Canadian Association for Social Workers, Code of Ethics (2005) and the Alberta College of Social Work Standards of Practice (2019).

Academic Accommodation

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures. Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS). SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their instructor. Please refer to the full policy on Student Accommodations.

Research Ethics

“If a student is interested in undertaking an assignment that will involve collecting information from members of the public, they should speak with the course instructor and consult the CFREB Ethics Website before beginning the assignment.

Academic Misconduct

For information on academic misconduct and its consequences, please refer to the Integrity and Conduct section in the University of Calgary Calendar.

Instructor Intellectual Property

Course materials created by professor(s) (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the professor(s). These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the professor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.

Copyright Legislation

All students who use materials protected by copyright are expected to comply with the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright and requirements of the Copyright Act to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy

Student information will be collected in accordance with typical (or usual) classroom practice. Students’ assignments will be accessible only by the authorized course faculty. Private information related to the individual student is treated with the utmost regard by the faculty at the University of Calgary.

Sexual and Gender-Based Violence Policy

The University recognizes that all members of the University Community should be able to learn, work, teach and live in an environment where they are free from harassment, discrimination, and violence. The University of Calgary’s Sexual and Gender-based Violence Policy guides us in how we respond to incidents of sexual violence, including supports available to those who have experienced or witnessed sexual violence, or those who are alleged to have committed sexual violence. It provides clear response procedures and timelines, defines complex concepts, and addresses incidents that occur off-campus in certain circumstances.
