OUR COMMITMENT TO EQUITY, RACIAL JUSTICE, DIVERSITY, INCLUSION AND DECOLONIZATION

The Faculty of Social Work (FSW), University of Calgary (UCalgary), is committed to promoting and actualizing equity, racial justice, diversity, inclusion and decolonization. We affirm that diversity and uniqueness are enriching and valuable, and that they can strengthen our teaching, learning, research, scholarship, and community connections. We aim to foster an inclusive, thriving and equitable environment for our students, non-academic and academic staff, and community members. We take the stand that equity does not mean sameness in treatment of people, but rather requires measures and accommodations for diverse life experiences and circumstances to ensure that no one of a particular social group is disadvantaged, underrepresented or overlooked in all aspects of our work. We intend to address systemic inequities and compounded disadvantages due to intersectionality of social locations, particularly for those who are members of racialized communities, Indigenous peoples, Black peoples, persons with disabilities, migrant groups (including refugees and immigrants), 2SLGBTQ+ communities, linguistic minorities as well as those who have experienced socioeconomic, caregiving, religious, political, and/or cultural barriers to their education and employment. We also recognize, honour, and integrate into our work diverse perspectives, ways of knowing and doing, experiences, and strengths. An anti-oppressive lens, particularly intersectional, anti-colonial, anti-racist and decolonizing frameworks, will inform our work.

SYLLABUS STATEMENT

Examines concepts of culture, identity, oppression, and "differentness" in relationship to theories of social justice, at all levels of professional practice.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Social justice is the unifying value of diverse forms of social work practice and is situated in the historical and moral base of the profession. This course requires students to critically examine theoretical perspectives of social justice in order to evaluate and articulate its application in their current practice. Students will identify how their assumptions and social location affect their pursuit of social justice while simultaneously examining structural and system barriers to achieving a more just society.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of this course students will be able to:

- 1. Critique theories of justice, power, and inequity and their roles in shaping oppressive social structures and unbalanced power relations.
- 2. Critically examine issues of diversity and power relations that form common links among the experiences of oppression and marginalization in Canada and internationally.
- 3. Demonstrate, identify and articulate a social work identity, with an emphasis on social justice, social work values and knowledge.
- 4. Demonstrate a critical understanding of oppressive social structures and the role that antioppressive social work theories and practices can play in facilitating resistance that leads to social justice and transformation.
- 5. Apply an anti-oppressive perspective, grounded in theory, research and evidence-based knowledge to their own practice.
- 6. Advocate for social justice and the social well-being of all peoples, and in particular vulnerable or disadvantaged individuals, groups, and communities.
- 7. Identify strategies for applying course learning.

LEARNING RESOURCES

LEARNING TECHNOLOGIES AND REQUIREMENTS

A D2L site has been set up for this course which contains required readings and other relevant class resources and materials. A Zoom link to be used for all online sessions will be posted in d2l before the start of the class. To actively participate in zoom sessions, you will need a laptop, desktop or mobile device with Internet access and a camera. Speakers are required for easy access to zoom sessions. Students will have the option of holding group work meetings during the asynchronized times over Zoom, or their chosen platform.

RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER COURSES

The Advanced Practice Core curriculum consists of 4 theme courses, SOWK 600, 602, 604, and 606, which will explore core elements of social work knowledge and practice within the specializations. This curriculum will examine social justice, research strategies, social work practice models, and public policy with the intent of further developing students' unique social work perspective and strengthening their social work identity and personal practice framework. These courses also provide the foundation for the specialization as well as for the field education component leading to the final capstone project.

ADDITIONAL CLASSROOM CONDUCT AND RELATED INFORMATION

GUIDELINES FOR ZOOM SESSIONS IN ONLINE CLASSES

Students are expected to participate actively in all Zoom sessions. If you are unable to attend a Zoom session, please contact your instructor to arrange an alternative activity for the missed session (e.g., to review a recorded session) for your best learning experiences. Please be prepared, as best as you are able, to join class in a quiet space that will allow you to be fully present and engaged in Zoom sessions. Unless advised (or agreed) otherwise by their instructors, video cameras should be turned on during class and students are expected to manage their microphones as required. All students are expected to behave in a professional manner during all Zoom sessions.

ZOOM RECORDINGS OF ONLINE CLASSES

The instructor may record online Zoom class sessions for the purposes of supporting student learning in this class – such as making the recording available for review of the session or for students who miss a session. Students will be advised before the instructor initiates a recording of a Zoom session. These recordings will be used to support student learning only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose.

ASSESSMENT COMPONENTS

ASSIGNMENT 1: ZOOM AND D2L PARTICIPATION AND ENGAGEMENT

Weight: 10%
Due date: ongoing

Aligned Course Learning Outcomes: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7

The purpose of this assignment is to engage students in active participation during synchronous and asynchronous sessions, and to develop their deep listening and critical reflections, group facilitation skills, engagement with critical conversations. Grades will be based on the student's ongoing and active participation in the synchronous and asynchronous activities. In particular, students will be expected to come to class prepared to engage with the course content and contribute to dialogues/activities by sharing insights, content, critiques, and create connections with their field or practice.

Students are also expected to facilitate classroom discussions in groups of 2-3 students, for 20 minutes, depending on the number of students. This activity will take place between May 18th and June 06th. Students will be assigned the readings during the first class.

Students are expected to be fully present and engaged in each class activities and discussions. These are part of the participation grade, as outlined in the assessment components section above.

ASSIGNMENT 2: POSTER AND POLICY ANALYSIS FROM A SOCIAL JUSTICE LENS Weight: 40%

Aligned Course Learning Outcomes: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6,

This assignment comprises two parts: (1) Identify and critically analyze a social policy and provide a clear rationale and literature review on the chosen issue; (2) Deliver presentation of poster.

The purpose of this assignment is to help students trace their own learnings and engage with how such learnings can be disseminated theoretically in ways that legitimize their own interpretations and analysis of the issues and ideas they examine. Particular emphasis will be placed on how students integrate their learnings from the course into all parts of this assignment. Students are encouraged to become active participants of knowledge production, evaluation and dissemination in ways that are consistent with social justice values and principles discussed in the course. Students are asked to interrogate the tensions and contradictions that emerge for them as they unpack the theoretical, epistemological and practice assumptions guiding the course through the analysis of a social policy.

During the first class, the instructor will provide the list of policy areas from which students choose a topic of interest. Groups of 3-4 students will be randomly assigned. A group page will be created on D2L for each group. Please ensure to apply your teamwork skills to collaborate with others and support one another in each part of the assignment. Dedicated asynchronous times are put in place so that students will have opportunities to meet with group members and consult with the instructor in support of this poster assignment.

Part I: Development and Rationale of the Selected Social Policy

Weight: 20%

Due Date: May 25, 2023, by 11:59 p.m.

For Part I, each group is asked to identify and agree on a local, national or international social welfare policy. Students must compile a list of five online resources (e.g., videos, resources, policy briefs, podcasts, etc.) that they will actively engage with and critically analyze. A rationale must be provided for selecting the policy and related sources, and how each source informs their theoretical and epistemological understandings of their chosen social policy.

The poster is assumed to be a scholarly presentation and students are expected to demonstrate academic rigor in the ways they develop their poster and articulate their learning. Students are encouraged to critically examine ethics, ethical tensions and contradictions that emerge when unpacking theoretical, epistemological and practice assumptions. They should then identify and critically reflect on how these shape their social work practice approaches when working with diverse and marginalized individuals and social groups in their chosen areas of practice and communities.

This paper is 4 double spaced pages, must adhere to proper APA 7th edition formatting and referencing. Please refer to the rubric posted in D2L for additional information. This assignment must be submitted to D2L in the designated Dropbox folder.

Part 2: Poster Presentation

Weight: 20%

Due Date: June 15, 2023, by 12p.m.

In part 2 of this assignment, groups will present their posters to the class. Each group will be given 20 minutes (15 minutes to present and 5 minutes to answer questions from peers and the instructor). Presenters are expected to integrate classroom material (lectures, discussions, reading and classroom activities) into their researched and presented topic. Specific attention will be paid to presenters' chosen policy and how they ground their analysis within critical theoretical frameworks discussed in class.

Students are expected to demonstrate scholarly theoretical rigor that shows their ways of examining the issues presented and illustrates their practice approaches with diverse and marginalized individuals and social groups. Students also are encouraged to highlight the role social work knowledge base plays in shaping their responses to issues of marginality. Students are encouraged to position their approaches within critical anti-oppressive, anti-racist and social justice oriented social work practice. Some guiding questions that students might integrate into their poster include:

- 1. What are the perspectives that drive policy development and application?
- 2. How would such policy respond to the needs it is set to address?

All presenters are encouraged to use their creativity to enhance the curiosity of other students and engage critical discussions. In addition, attention will be paid to teamwork, flow of ideas and the active engagement of other students on the presented topic. Students are expected to submit a complete list of references with their poster to D2L on June 15th by 12:00p.m. This is a group project; one grade will be assigned to all group members. Please refer to the rubric posted in D2L for additional information.

ASSIGNMENT 3: SOCIAL JUSTICE APPLICATION

Weight: 50%

Due date: June 8th, 2023, by 11:59 p.m.

Aligned Course Learning Outcomes: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7

The objective of this individual assignment is for students to reflect on and critically examine injustices that are committed in their circles of influence. The final paper is meant to demonstrate student reflection and integration of course material.

Students should identify and name a social injustice they observed in their circle of influence where they can engage in resistance and change. The injustice can range from forms of micro-aggressions (e.g., language, attitudes, behaviours), to policies or procedures in organizations/workplaces. The injustice might also be a practice or intervention model or a research activity in which students may have and/or been involved. Discuss the context in which it occurred (the time injustice was realized, the persons or material objects involved, their positions and roles at the time, their initial reactions as observer or actors, and their understanding of the presenting injustice at the time. Students must then discuss a theoretical approach most suitable in addressing the injustice and the rationale of the theoretical approach selected. Students should consider the potential risks, challenges, and opportunities for transformation when connecting their theoretical approaches to their social(in)justice. Students will then be asked to describe practical steps they will take to respond or address the identified injustice (time, place, tactics, etc.). Students must also discuss their thoughts and feelings in relation to the action they are choosing to take. Papers must be range between 7 – 8 pages, double-spaced; pages beyond this range will not be assessed. Students must integrate course materials, zoom sessions, discussions with colleagues, previous assignments, etc. to integrate learnings into their social justice application. Please refer to the rubric posted in D2L for additional information. This assignment must be submitted to D2L in the designated Dropbox folder.
