OUR COMMITMENT TO EQUITY, RACIAL JUSTICE, DIVERSITY, INCLUSION AND DECOLONIZATION

The Faculty of Social Work (FSW), University of Calgary (UCalgary), is committed to promoting and actualizing equity, racial justice, diversity, inclusion and decolonization. We affirm that diversity and uniqueness are enriching and valuable, and that they can strengthen our teaching, learning, research, scholarship, and community connections. We aim to foster an inclusive, thriving and equitable environment for our students, non-academic and academic staff, and community members. We take the stand that equity does not mean sameness in treatment of people, but rather requires measures and accommodations for diverse life experiences and circumstances to ensure that no one of a particular social group is disadvantaged, underrepresented or overlooked in all aspects of our work. We intend to address systemic inequities and compounded disadvantages due to intersectionality of social locations, particularly for those who are members of racialized communities, Indigenous peoples, Black peoples, persons with disabilities, migrant groups (including refugees and immigrants), 2SLGBTQ+ communities, linguistic minorities as well as those who have experienced socioeconomic, caregiving, religious, political, and/or cultural barriers to their education and employment. We also recognize, honour, and integrate into our work diverse perspectives, ways of knowing and doing, experiences, and strengths. An

SYLLABUS STATEMENT

Explores social work research through examination of various paradigms, methods and approaches (e.g., qualitative, quantitative, Indigenous methodologies, mixed methods, participatory action research, arts-based), and applies social work research to practice.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

In this course, you will develop your understanding of social work research through examining various approaches (qualitative and quantitative), paradigms, and methods. Competence in research is a foundational notion of social work practice and is highlighted in professional codes of ethics. As producers and consumers of research, often in collaboration with and across cognate disciplines, social workers must also ensure that research is conducted with and for the benefit of those served by the profession, across all levels and fields of social work practice, and that it aligns with the values of the profession. A thorough understanding of quantitative, qualitative and mixed methods research, and Indigenous and critical approaches, supports ethical practice. This course will consider the wider array of research methodologies, with a focus on quantitative and qualitative approaches.

This course will take place online via Desire2Learn (D2L) and Zoom. Students will work independently, in small and large groups during this on-line course. Both synchronous learning (i.e., real-time/Zoom) and asynchronous learning (i.e., students complete on their own time) will be applied. To best succeed in the course, students are expected to participate in the asynchronous learning tasks using the D2L learning environment and synchronous Zoom sessions.

Course Hours: 3 units; (3S-0) Prerequisite(s): Admission to the MSW program or the Graduate Certificate in Advanced Social Work Practice.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Understand the relationship between research methodologies and philosophical systems that create and maintain ontological frameworks and ways of knowing;
2. Recognize shared understandings and commitments across quantitative, qualitative, mixed methods, Indigenous and critical research approaches in social work practice;
3. Illustrate how research can inform the professions' efforts to promote social justice;
4. Describe the research design, data collection, and data analysis strategies used in quantitative, qualitative, and mixed method approaches;

5. Demonstrate skills necessary to incorporate quantitative, qualitative and mixed methods research into social work practice irrespective of level or field of practice;
6. Critically evaluate research in social work practice, and
7. Apply course learnings to your specialization and the exit requirements of the MSW program.

ADDITIONAL CLASSROOM CONDUCT AND RELATED INFORMATION

GUIDELINES FOR ZOOM SESSIONS IN ONLINE CLASSES

Students are expected to participate actively in all Zoom sessions. If you are unable to attend a Zoom session, please contact your instructor to arrange an alternative activity for the missed session (e.g., to review a recorded session) for your best learning experiences. Please be prepared, as best as you are able, to join class in a quiet space that will allow you to be fully present and engaged in Zoom sessions. Unless advised (or agreed) otherwise by their instructors, video cameras should be turned on during class and students are expected to manage their microphones as required. All students are expected to behave in a professional manner during all Zoom sessions.

ASSESSMENT COMPONENTS

All assignments and rubrics for assignments 2 and 3 are located on the course D2L site.

Assignment 1: TCPS 2 (20%) – Due Oct 24 at noon in D2L – CLO: 3, 4

For this assignment, you will complete the Tri-Council TCPS 2 Tutorial Course on Research Ethics (CORE), which can be found online at: <http://www.pre.ethics.gc.ca/eng/education/tutorial-didacticiel/>. To complete the tutorial, you will need to self-register using your @ucalgary email address. Please note that this tutorial takes approximately 3 hours to complete. Submit your certificate of completion to the TCPS2 Dropbox on D2L to receive grading for this assignment. Successful completion and submission within the noted timeline will earn you 20% of the course grade. No rubric is required for this assignment.

Assignment #2: Developing Research/Inquiry Question (15%) – Due November 1 at midnight in D2L, CLO: 1, 2

Students will develop their research/inquiry question following a number of assigned group activities. The development of the inquiry question will be based on the student research of the relevant literature and feedback by peers and the instructor. Students are encouraged to discuss their ideas with their instructor and their colleagues. Each student will have a unique inquiry question to pursue and to support their learning of the research process.

The inquiry question will be focused on a relevant area for social work practice and will allow you to reflect on multiple components of the research process while pursuing your inquiry question throughout the duration of the course.

Assignment #3: Peer Feedback (15%) – Due Dec 1 at midnight in D2L, CLO: 6, 7

Each class has a component of small group work to support your learning of the research process, typically 3-5 students depending on class size. In these groups you will learn to give and receive constructive feedback to support yours and your colleagues' learning. After classes 5 and 11 you will provide formal peer feedback (template on D2L). Your grade on peer feedback will reflect the thoughtfulness and constructiveness of your formative peer feedback to your small group of colleagues.

Assignment #4: Analysis Presentation (50%) – Due in class Nov 28, 30 or Dec 5 (TBD), CLO: 1-7

In this assignment you are invited to reflect on your learnings about the research process. You will prepare for and deliver (using Power point) an analysis presentation of approximately 10-15 minutes (depending on class size) and will respond to the following invitation:

Tell us about your learnings in the course beginning with your understanding of how ways of knowing influence research methodologies, and ending with how research can inform social work practice with a focus on social justice. As part of your presentation, you will include the following;

- A statement about your research or inquiry question to let the audience know why you chose it and how it relates to social work practice (5%)
- A description of the process you followed that helped you to answer your inquiry question. For example, what resources, people, activities supported your learnings (15%)
- Which type of research design would best fit with your inquiry question, and which methods of data collection do you think you would want to use (15%)
- How might you anticipate using the results/findings from your research to inform practice, and with who (10%)
- In what ways will your research encourage social justice in social work practice? In what ways might it not (5%)

ADDITIONAL ASSESSMENT AND EVALUATION INFORMATION

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION EXPECTATIONS

Students are expected to attend class regularly and to be fully present and engaged in class activities and discussions. The zoom sessions and activities with peers will support you in completing your assignments. Peer feedback is an important component of becoming a social work professional and as such you will be learning to provide and receive constructive peer feedback.

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMITTING ASSIGNMENTS

Please submit all assignments electronically through their respective Dropbox in D2L. Assignments are to be submitted in Word format. Assignments should have a file name as follows: “Full name and assignment number” (e.g., Jane Smith Assignment 2). Please note that it is the student's responsibility to ensure that the proper version is submitted. Late assignments will be accepted only in exceptional circumstances and at the discretion of the instructor.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS

Late assignments will be accepted only in exceptional circumstances and at the discretion of the instructor. Students must meet with the instructor to discuss an extension. Assignments submitted after the deadline may be penalized with a grade reduction.

EXPECTATIONS FOR WRITING

Sources used in research papers must be properly documented and referenced in APA 7th edition format. Assignments will be assessed partly on writing skills. Writing skills include not only surface correctness (grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, etc.) but also general clarity and organization. If you need writing support, please connect with the Student Success Centre, at:

<https://www.ucalgary.ca/student-services/student-success/writing-support>

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

It is expected that all work submitted in assignments is the student's own work, written expressly by the student for this particular course. Students are reminded that academic misconduct, including plagiarism, has serious consequences, as set out in the University Calendar:

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>

GRADING

A student's final grade for the course is the sum of the separate assignments. It is not necessary to pass each assignment separately in order to pass the course. The University of Calgary Graduate Grading System and Faculty of Social Work Percentage Conversion will be used. This grading system overrides the grading system in D2L.

Grade	Grade Point	Description	Percentage Range

A	4.0	Excellent performance	95-100
A-	3.7	Very good performance	90-94
B+	3.3	Good performance	85-89
B	3.0	Satisfactory performance. Note: The grade point value (3.0) associated with this grade is the minimum acceptable average that a graduate student must maintain throughout the programme as computed at the end of each year of their program.	80-84
B-	2.7	Minimum pass. Note: Students who accumulate two grades of "B-" or lower can be required by the Faculty to withdraw from the programme regardless of the grade point average.	75-79
C+	2.3	All grades of "C+" or lower are indicative of failure at the graduate level and cannot be counted toward Faculty of Graduate Studies course requirements.	70-74
C	2.00		65-69
C-	1.70		60-64

D+	1.30		55-59
D	1.00		50-54
