

Winter 2025

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Our students, faculty and staff are located across Indigenous lands. On our Calgary campus, we acknowledge and pay tribute to the traditional territories of the peoples who made Treaty 7, which include the Blackfoot Confederacy (comprised of the Siksika, the Piikani and the Kainai First Nations), the Tsuut'ina First Nation and the Stoney Nakoda (including Chiniki, Bearspaw and Goodstoney First Nations). The city of Calgary is also home to the Métis Nation of Alberta (Districts 5 and 6). Our Calgary campus is situated on land northwest of where the Bow River meets the Elbow River, a site known as Moh'kins'tsis to the Blackfoot, Wîchîspa Oyade to the Îyâxe Nakoda (Stoney Nakoda), and Guts'ists'i to the Tsuut'ina and Otos-kwunee to the Metis.

At our Edmonton campus, we acknowledge the Treaty 6 region, the traditional homelands of Cree, Blackfoot, Nakota Sioux, Iroquois, Dene, Ojibway/ Saulteaux/ Anishinaabe, Inuit and Métis people (Districts 9 and 10). We recognize the rich cultural history of the place, now called the City of Edmonton, which has, for centuries, been a traditional gathering place of Indigenous peoples from across Alberta, BC, and Saskatchewan.

At our Lethbridge campus, we acknowledge the traditional territories of the Blackfoot people of the Canadian Plains and pay respect to the Blackfoot people past, present and future while recognizing and respecting their cultural heritage, beliefs and relationship to the land. We offer respect to the Metis and all who have lived on this land and made Lethbridge their home.

OUR COMMITMENT TO EQUITY, RACIAL JUSTICE, DIVERSITY, INCLUSION AND DECOLONIZATION

The Faculty of Social Work (FSW), University of Calgary (UCalgary), is committed to promoting and actualizing equity, racial justice, diversity, inclusion and decolonization. We affirm that diversity and uniqueness are enriching and valuable, and that they can strengthen our teaching, learning, research, scholarship, and community connections. We aim to foster an inclusive, thriving and equitable environment for our students, non-academic and academic staff, and community members. We take the stand that equity does not mean sameness in treatment of people, but rather requires measures and accommodations for diverse life experiences and circumstances to ensure that no one of a particular social group is disadvantaged, underrepresented or overlooked in all aspects of our work. We intend to address systemic inequities and compounded disadvantages due to intersectionality of social locations, particularly for those who are members of racialized communities, Indigenous peoples, Black peoples, persons with disabilities, migrant groups (including refugees and immigrants), 2SLGBTQ+ communities, linguistic minorities as well as those who have experienced socioeconomic, caregiving, religious, political, and/or cultural barriers to their education and employment. We also recognize, honour, and integrate into our work diverse perspectives, ways of knowing and doing, experiences, and strengths. An anti-oppressive lens, particularly intersectional, anti-colonial, anti-racist and decolonizing frameworks, will inform our work.

Please refer to our full statement of our Commitment to Equity, Racial Justice, Diversity, Inclusion and Decolonization, our Statement on Anti-Black Racism and the work of the faculty's Anti-Black Racism Task Force, our Statement on Anti-Asian Racism, and the university's Indigenous Strategy.

SYLLABUS STATEMENT

Learners engage in experiential, reflective, and curiosity-driven learning through community service and social justice initiatives. Social Work supervision and an integrative seminar scaffold, support, build Social Work competence, and engage in peer learning while developing their professional Social Work identity.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course builds upon the Community Engaged Practicum and learning experiences you gained in SOWK 390. You will complete 200 hours of experiential learning, guided by your learning agreement focusing on social work practice, community service, and social justice initiatives.

In addition to your fieldwork hours, you will participate in weekly classes to engage in social work supervision and explore topics such as professional identity, professional practice, human rights and social action. This course will involve interactive discussions, educational supervision, peer learning, and exploration of social work through experiential projects, research, or community engagement.

Course Hours: 6 units; (200 hours – 3T)

Prerequisite(s): Admission to BSW program (University Transfer route, including After-Degree) and Social Work 201 and Social Work 390 [Social Work 420] with a grade of “C” or better. As this course is CR or F and it is not included in the overall GPA calculation.

Note: Students may be completing their practicum at locations that involve additional costs to meet requirements of specific organizations. Students are responsible for all costs associated with practicum activities. Some practicum activities may require variable hours during weekdays, evenings, or weekends.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of this course, you will have the opportunity to:

1. Demonstrate a deep understanding of social work knowledge, skills, attitudes, and values.
2. Apply reflective practice to analyze your own experiences and growth as a social worker.
3. Engage meaningfully with communities as a social work learner, actively participating in supervised learning activities outlined in your learning agreement.
4. Integrate human rights, social action, and anti-racist practices into your community work and interactions within the Faculty of Social Work.
5. Identify and critically evaluate the systemic factors that contribute to social injustices in your communities.
6. Develop comprehensive learning goals that demonstrate lifelong competence, cultural humility and ongoing commitment to social justice and social change.

LEARNING RESOURCES

- There is no required textbook. Links to required readings will be posted in D2L.
- Canadian Association of Social Workers. (2024). CASW Code of Ethics, values, and guiding principles. <https://www.casw-acts.ca/en/casw-code-ethics-2024>
- Practicum Learning Agreement.
- Resource documents (found in D2L).

LEARNING TECHNOLOGIES AND REQUIREMENTS

In person delivery

This course is delivered in person. Course resources and materials are housed on Desire2Learn (D2L).

Discussion Board

Online discussion in D2L is a key aspect of our learning in this course. The advantage of the discussion board is that it is asynchronous, that is, we can all contribute at a time that is convenient to each of us. We will participate in exploration of key field practicum themes (as outlined in the practicum learning agreement); case discussions, as well as discussion and debate relating relevant practice.

Confidentiality in Class and Course Assignments

As professionals, students and the instructor will respect the guidelines of confidentiality outlined in the CASW Code of Ethics (2024). We will take care that no information that could identify a service user of any service system be used in class meetings or in assignments. We will adhere to the policy that issues introduced in the class will be discussed in only general, and not particular ways outside the classroom.

CONNECTIONS TO PRACTICE

Following SOWK 390, this course further develops and integrates knowledge and social work skills while exploring self, the social work profession, and your community. Guided by ongoing participation in social work supervision, peer learning, and reflective practice, you will demonstrate a commitment to cultural humility, equity, diversity, inclusion, anti-racism, human rights, and social change. This process includes active participation in weekly in-class supervision. You will articulate your learning in the Learning Agreement, activating a social justice response, and continue to develop your emerging social work identity and practice framework.

RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER COURSES

SOWK 392 builds on the learning from SOWK 390 and is a prerequisite for SOWK 590 and 592.

The Community-Engaged Practicum and Integration course builds on the preparatory and foundational learning in SOWK 390. Learning continues in a more active and applied way. The areas of focus for learning are visually depicted below.

Students and instructors will meet for weekly supervision in-class. The purpose of this class is to provide space for learning, reflection, and supervision. To manage larger class sizes, the class may be divided into Break Out Rooms for different activities to allow opportunities for check-in, debrief, smaller group discussions and practicum activities. To facilitate deeper learning in supervision and class activities, instructors may divide the class in half. One-half will participate in intensive, one-on-one supervision sessions for 1.5 hours. During this time, the other half will engage in dynamic learning activities for intentional reflection and meaningful dialogue, shaping your social work identity.

These activities may include:

- Peer-led discussions on integrating theory into practice through the Integrating Theory and Practice loop. A detailed guide can be found in D2L.
- Ethical dilemma analysis to sharpen critical thinking
- Case study explorations to apply knowledge to real-world scenarios

Learning will focus on:

Engagement in weekly social work learning experiences

- Learning activities can consist of any of the following: Participation in simulations or interprofessional events.
- Completion of training sessions or webinars on social work skills/knowledge training, readings, podcasts, films, and role-plays.
- Contribution to social work projects by supporting faculty or agency-based projects. This may involve contributing to project planning, implementation, and evaluation, with a focus on achieving desired project outcomes.
- Dedication of time in volunteer service by holding a volunteer role or attending events/tours to gain hands-on experience will enable students to connect with communities, gain practical skills, and contribute to meaningful social change initiatives.

- Assisting with approved, supervised social work research by supporting faculty or agency-based research projects. This may include data collection, analysis, literature reviews, and dissemination of findings, providing valuable insights into the research process within the field of social work.

Social Work Supervision and Peer Learning

- Preparation for class and supervisory discussions to enhance learning and practice.
- Participate in debriefing to reflect on learning experiences and receive feedback for enhancement and growth.
- Contribute to peer learning through group discussions and structured reflection exercises.
- Participate in the evaluation of practicum learning progress and achievements.

Reflective Practice and Evaluation

- Engage in weekly, ongoing reflection documented in the Practicum Learning Agreement
- Organize and plan intentional learning activities to support knowledge and skill integration.
- Participate in the Integrating Theory and Practice Loop in class as scheduled.

Weekly Class Schedule

- Class will be Mondays from 1:00 – 3:50 pm Mountain Time.

ADDITIONAL CLASSROOM CONDUCT AND RELATED INFORMATION

INSTRUCTOR EMAIL POLICY

All course communication must occur through your @ucalgary email. Students can expect responses to your @ucalgary emails within 48 hours excluding weekends and statutory holidays.

MEDIA RECORDING FOR ASSESSMENT OF STUDENT LEARNING

The instructor may use Zoom media recordings as part of the assessment of students. This may include but is not limited to classroom discussions, presentations, clinical practice, or skills testing that occur during the course. These recordings will be used for student assessment purposes only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose. Students will be advised before the instructor initiates a recording of a Zoom session

RECORDINGS OF CLASSES BY STUDENTS

Recording of lectures is not permitted by students. You must seek authorization from your instructor to record any lecture. Any student with a disability who is registered with Student Accessibility Services (SAS), and who requires an accommodation to make audio recordings of course material shall be provided with such an accommodation if determined necessary by an Access Advisor in SAS. Please refer to the Recording of Lectures Policy and Student Non-Academic Misconduct Policy for the additional information.

ASSESSMENT COMPONENTS

Class Attendance & Seminar Participation – attend weekly classes for engagement of learning and supervision.

Learning Agreement: Learning will progress cumulatively each week and be tracked in the learning agreement. Your progress will be assessed through the Practicum Learning Agreement, evaluated at the beginning, midpoint, and end of the course by both the instructor and you, the learner.

To successfully complete the course, you must meet or exceed the objectives as outlined in the rubric below. This will include ongoing engagement in the weekly activities and reflective prompts outlined in the learning agreement.

Evaluation of your progress is an ongoing process that highlights strengths and identifies areas for growth that the beginning, midterm, and end of the practicum. ADDITIONAL ASSESSMENT AND EVALUATION INFORMATION

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION EXPECTATIONS

You are expected to participate actively in all classes. Please be prepared, as best as you are able, to participate openly, respectfully, and honestly in class discussions. You are expected to behave in a professional manner during all class. There is a high emphasis on attendance and participation. You are expected to be fully present and engaged in class activities and discussions. Please refer to the UCalgary calendar for more information on attendance and supporting documentation and the use of a statutory declaration. For students with caregiving roles, if alternative arrangements for care of children cannot be made for a class, children will be welcomed into our class to decrease participation barriers for students with caregiving roles. Please contact your instructor to discuss as needed.

ETHICAL APPROACH TO THIS COURSE

This class prioritizes a trauma-informed, decolonization approach, where all participants (teachers and learners) share in relational accountability for creating and maintaining a climate of respectful dialogue and treatment of one another. As social workers and aspiring social workers, reflecting our professional ethics inside and outside of the classroom helps us to build congruence between our personal and professional selves. You are encouraged to participate in critical reflection, personal growth, and skill-development while learning from the instructors, each other, and practitioners in the field. The intent of class is to provide opportunities to make connections between thinking, feeling, doing and being. Our social work roles in social and self-care practices in the context of the practice and the pursuit of social justice will be emphasized. Ethical space, a concept forwarded by Dr. Willie Ermine, will be explored, and practiced in this class (we will need to have a copy of this document to post in D2L

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMITTING ASSIGNMENTS

Please submit all assignments electronically through their respective Dropbox in D2L. Assignments may be submitted in Word or PDF format. Assignments should have a file name as follows: "Full name and assignment number" (e.g., Jane Smith Assignment 2). Assignments are due before midnight on their due date. Please note that it is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of each submitted assignment and to ensure that the proper version is submitted.

EXPECTATIONS FOR WRITING

All writing is expected to be written to social work professional standards. If you need writing support, please connect with the Student Success Centre, at: <https://www.ucalgary.ca/student-services/studentsuccess/writing-support>

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

It is expected that all work submitted in assignments is the student's own work, written expressly by the student for this particular course. Students are reminded that academic misconduct, including plagiarism, has serious consequences, as set out in the University Calendar:

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>

USE OF ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE TOOLS

Unrestricted Use

Students may use generative AI tools throughout this course to enhance their learning in any course learning activities, assignments, and assessments. Students are responsible for citing and referencing all work generated by AI tools as outlined by the course instructor.

- Students may use AI tools for understanding course materials and producing assignments but must be accountable for their submissions.
- Reflections on AI tool usage should be included in assignments.
- AI-generated content must be cited appropriately.

GRADING

The SOWK 392 instructor is both field instructor (practicum supervisor) and instructor-of-record holding the final responsibility for assigning student grades. Students receive a CR (Completed Requirements) or F (Fail) as a grade for this course. Concerns regarding a student's performance in practicum at any point in the semester may result in the student being identified as at-risk for failing the practicum, and such concerns should be discussed with the student's field coordinator immediately. Policies and procedures related to at-risk situations are detailed in the Field Education Manual. Students who do not receive a CR (completed requirements) grade in the field practicum course may be required to withdraw from the program.

COURSE EVALUATION

At the close of each term, students can provide feedback on their academic learning experience in their courses, including their instructors, through university-wide online surveys. Student feedback contributes to ensuring academic excellence in the university's curriculum by bringing direct feedback to instructors.

Students will receive an email from UCalgary Course Experience Surveys with direct links to their current course surveys, or they can access within the D2L course shell. For more information, visit: <https://www.ucalgary.ca/provost/teaching-learning/student-surveys>

Students are welcome to discuss the process and content of the course at any time with the instructor.

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY POLICIES AND SUPPORTS

Professional Conduct

As members of the University community, students and staff are expected to demonstrate conduct that is consistent with the University of Calgary's Code of Conduct.

Students and staff are also expected to demonstrate professional behaviour in class that promotes and maintains a positive and productive learning environment. Consistent with the aims of the Social Work Program and the University of Calgary, all students and staff are expected to respect, appreciate, and encourage expression of diverse world views and perspectives; to offer their fellow community members unconditional respect and constructive feedback; and to contribute to building learning communities that promote individual and collective professional and personal growth. While critical thought and debate is valued in response to concepts and opinions shared in class, feedback must always be focused on the ideas or opinions shared and not on the person who has stated them.

Students and staff are expected to model behaviour in class that is consistent with our professional values and ethics, as outlined in the Canadian Association for Social Workers, Code of Ethics (2024) and the Alberta College of Social Work Standards of Practice (2023).

Academic Accommodation

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures. Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS). SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their instructor. Please refer to the full policy on Student Accommodations.

Research Ethics

"If a student is interested in undertaking an assignment that will involve collecting information from members of the public, they should speak with the course instructor and consult the CFREB Ethics Website before beginning the assignment.

Academic Misconduct

For information on academic misconduct and its consequences, please refer to the Integrity and Conduct section in the University of Calgary Calendar.

Instructor Intellectual Property

Course materials created by professor(s) (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the professor(s). These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the professor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.

Copyright Legislation

All students who use materials protected by copyright are expected to comply with the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright and requirements of the Copyright Act to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy

Student information will be collected in accordance with typical (or usual) classroom practice. Students' assignments will be accessible only by the authorized course faculty. Private information related to the individual student is treated with the utmost regard by the faculty at the University of Calgary.

Sexual and Gender-Based Violence Policy

The University recognizes that all members of the University Community should be able to learn, work, teach and live in an environment where they are free from harassment, discrimination, and violence. The University of Calgary's Sexual and Gender-based Violence Policy guides us in how we respond to incidents of sexual violence, including supports available to those who have experienced or witnessed sexual violence, or those who are alleged to have committed sexual violence. It provides clear response procedures and timelines, defines complex concepts, and addresses incidents that occur off-campus in certain circumstances.
