

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Our students, faculty and staff are located across Indigenous lands. On our Calgary campus, we acknowledge and pay tribute to the traditional territories of the peoples who made Treaty 7, which include the Blackfoot Confederacy (comprised of the Siksika, the Piikani and the Kainai First Nations), the Tsuut'ina First Nation and the Stoney Nakoda (including Chiniki, Bearspaw and Goodstoney First Nations). The city of Calgary is also home to the Métis Nation of Alberta (Districts 5 and 6). Our Calgary campus is situated on land northwest of where the Bow River meets the Elbow River, a site known as Moh'kins'tsis to the Blackfoot, Wîchîspa Oyade to the Îyâxe Nakoda (Stoney Nakoda), and Guts'ists'i to the Tsuut'ina and Otos-kwunee to the Metis.

At our Edmonton campus, we acknowledge the Treaty 6 region, the traditional homelands of Cree, Blackfoot, Nakota Sioux, Iroquois, Dene, Ojibway/ Saulteaux/ Anishinaabe, Inuit and Métis people (Districts 9 and 10). We recognize the rich cultural history of the place, now called the City of Edmonton, which has, for centuries, been a traditional gathering place of Indigenous peoples from across Alberta, BC, and Saskatchewan.

At our Lethbridge campus, we acknowledge the traditional territories of the Blackfoot people of the Canadian Plains and pay respect to the Blackfoot people past, present and future while recognizing and respecting their cultural heritage, beliefs and relationship to the land. We offer respect to the Metis and all who have lived on this land and made Lethbridge their home.

OUR COMMITMENT TO EQUITY, RACIAL JUSTICE, DIVERSITY, INCLUSION AND DECOLONIZATION

The Faculty of Social Work (FSW), University of Calgary (UCalgary), is committed to promoting and actualizing equity, racial justice, diversity, inclusion and decolonization. We affirm that diversity and uniqueness are enriching and valuable, and that they can strengthen our teaching, learning, research, scholarship, and community connections. We aim to foster an inclusive, thriving and equitable environment for our students, non-academic and academic staff, and community members. We take the stand that equity does not mean sameness in treatment of people, but rather requires measures and accommodations for diverse life experiences and circumstances to ensure that no one of a particular social group is disadvantaged, underrepresented or overlooked in all aspects of our work. We intend to address systemic inequities and compounded disadvantages due to intersectionality of social locations, particularly for those who are members of racialized communities, Indigenous peoples, Black peoples, persons with disabilities, migrant groups (including refugees and immigrants), 2SLGBTQ+ communities, linguistic minorities as well as those who have experienced socioeconomic, caregiving, religious, political, and/or cultural barriers to their education and employment. We also recognize, honour, and integrate into our work diverse perspectives, ways of knowing and doing, experiences, and strengths. An anti-oppressive lens, particularly intersectional, anti-colonial, anti-racist and decolonizing frameworks, will inform our work.

Please refer to our full statement of our Commitment to Equity, Racial Justice, Diversity, Inclusion and Decolonization, our Statement on Anti-Black Racism and the work of the faculty's Anti-Black Racism Task Force, our Statement on Anti-Asian Racism, and the university's Indigenous Strategy.

Description: Each day of the course will focus on the practice of specific interviewing skill sets and will include a practice lab. The practice labs will require students work in triads to practice interviewing skills and will include being an interviewer, an interviewee and an observer. Students will complete a daily Self-Assessment of Learning and Reflection worksheet that identifies student learning and growth and references the course content and readings.

This assignment requires students to complete the Interviewing Self-Assessment summary using the template on the D2L site and submit this with the daily interviewing lab self-assessment and reflection worksheets attached as an appendix.

ASSIGNMENT 3: Recorded Interview and Written Appraisal and Plan for Development

Due Date: February 2, 2025, via Dropbox by 11:59 pm MST

Value: 40% (Part A- 15%; Part B- 25%)

Due Date: January 29, 2023, video link and paper to be submitted to drop box on D2L. It is the student's responsibility to ensure the video link is working and that interviewer and interviewee are viewable and audible. Submitting a link that does not work could result in receiving 0 points for the video portion of the assignment.

This assignment will be composed of two components:

Part A) 8-Minute Video (15%)

Part B) Self-Appraisal and Plan for Development (25%)

Related Learning Objectives and Outcomes: Meets CLO 3, 4, 5, and PLO 1.2, 2.2, 5.1, and 9.1

Part A) - An 8-Minute Video (15%)

Students will pair up in dyads with classmates of their own selection (i.e. classmate peers), with one student playing the part of the "social work client" and the other playing the part of the "social worker conducting the interview". Students will be evaluated on their performance as the "social worker", and not the "client". However, the "client" has an important responsibility as well. The "client's" responsibility is to play the realistic part of an actual client coming in for counseling for the first time. Accordingly, the "client" must come up with a realistic social work scenario. When playing the "client" role, students are advised to avoid scenarios that have happened to them personally; especially scenarios involving potentially traumatic experiences as abuse, neglect, family violence, etc. When playing the role of the client, students are encouraged to exercise caution to avoid undue emotional distress or re-traumatizing themselves. The scenarios should be realistic enough and provide enough detail so that the person in the "social worker" role can work with it (i.e. a scenario that occasions the need to go and seek the aid of a professional).

The "social worker" will be expected to demonstrate the core conditions of relationship building and effective interviewing skills. Do not expect a perfect interview and keep in mind that mistakes are part of the learning process. Following the 8-minute interview, the "client" is expected to provide feedback to the "social worker" using a template which will be provided to students on D2L. The "client" is to be as specific as possible when providing feedback about instances where the "social worker" demonstrated or could have demonstrated any of the 6 interviewing skills/behaviours listed below.

The purpose of this assignment is to provide a simulated social work practice context for applying and developing interviewing skills and behaviors. Skills you are expected to demonstrate when you are playing the part of the "social worker" conducting the interview include:

1. Active listening behaviors (Attending, Posture, Non-verbal's)
2. Rapport building/relationship Skills: Empathy, Positive Regard
3. Interview Focus/Mutual Understanding of Presenting Problem(s)

4. Effective use of questions
5. Paraphrasing
6. Summarizing

The baseline tape will be 8 minutes long and is meant to cover the first 8 minutes of meeting a new client for the first time. Students should use gallery view in Zoom when recording this video to ensure both the social worker and client are visible (more detail on recording will be provided in class). Students are to assume that the social work role, limits of confidentiality and consenting process have already taken place when the 8-minute interview begins. Students may imagine the assignment as though they were meeting a real client “today”, in a professional situation.

Students will be graded on the demonstration of the above skills and the overall interview process. The interview will be assessed according to quality and implementation of the 6 identified skills. They will also be graded on their overall professionalism, and commitment to the interview process, meaning students are expected to stay “in character” for the 8-minute video and act as if this is a real social work situation.

Videos (or links to videos) will be submitted to Dropbox on D2L. Each student is expected to submit their 8-minute video in their role as “social worker”.

Videos must be in Zoom gallery view that both the social worker and client are clearly visible (and audible) during the entire video

Part B) Self-Appraisal and Plan for Development academic and reflection paper (25%).

Students will submit 3–5-page paper in APA format providing a self-appraisal of the 8-minute video and a plan for development. The paper will be in APA format, 7th Edition.

The self-appraisal will comment on the student’s use of the 6 skills (and/or other skills and learnings from class) as well as any missed opportunities. When making appraising comments, be sure to point to specific content to support your claims and include the timestamp of the example as well as a description. For example: (“At 0:04:45, I demonstrated the skills of empathy and attending when I leaned in and said.....At 0:06:13, I missed an opportunity to summarize after the client provided a lot of content...”). Descriptions of skills used, skills missed, and possible alternative responses should be clearly stated. Highlight and summarize skills that you think you used well and skills that you think you could improve on. Be sure to reference the feedback given by your interviewee (‘client’).

The plan for development will include the following components:

1. Reflecting on your course work, any work/practicum experience, and this tape analysis, identify areas of strength and where you have improved throughout this course.
2. Reflecting on your course work, any work/practicum experience, and this tape analysis, identify 3 goals for improving interviewing skills and professional development. Clearly outline a plan for how you will meet these goals.

You are ultimately accountable for the work you submit. Your approved use of AI tools must be documented in an appendix for each assignment. The documentation should include what tool(s) were used, how they were used, how the results from the AI were incorporated into the submitted work, what you did to verify the AI generated results, what you did to extend your work beyond the AI generated contents and your critical reflection on ethical use of AI tools. Failure to cite the use of AI generated content in an assignment will be considered a breach of academic integrity and subject to Academic Misconduct procedures.
